

tell

disclose

reveal

narrate

uncover

inform

announce

advise

order

declare

explain

recount

command

bid

repeat

disclose

To give new or secret information to someone

He refused to disclose details of the reporter

reveal

To give someone a piece of information that is surprising or that previously secret

The teacher pressed him to reveal more information

uncover

The truth

evidence

A plot

A
secret

To discover something that had been secret or hidden

I uncovered the truth to the teacher

A photograph of a teacher with long blonde hair in pigtails hugging a young student from behind. The teacher is wearing a dark sweater over a light-colored collared shirt. The student is also wearing a dark sweater. The background is a solid light pink color.

announce

To tell people about something officially

The teacher will announce the results next week

declare

To announce something publicly or officially

The teacher declared that our class is the best that The scientists have declared this meat is safe to eat

narrate

.To tell the story in a book, play, etc

“Peter and the wolf,” narrated by“
.actress Glenn Close

inform

To tell someone about something or to give someone information about something

If you annoys me again, I shall inform the teacher

advise

To give someone official information about something

.They were advised of their rights

To make a suggestion about what you think someone should do or how they should do something

His doctor advised him to take time off work

explain

To make something clear or easy to understand by giving reasons for it or details about it

?Can you explain why you did this

Can you explain to me who this mobile
?phone works

command

To order someone to do something

The teacher commanded me to write
.my name

order

To give someone an instruction that they must obey

The teacher ordered us to come quickly

recount

To tell a story or describe an event

He was recounting a story about a
.woman he had met on a train

bid

To say goodbye, or good night, good .....morning

She bade her guests good night

repeat

To tell someone something that someone else has told you

I've got some news for you but you mustn't repeat it to anyone