

Easter greeting

On the Sunday people usually greet each other with words: "Jesus rose from the dead! - Has truly revived." And people should kiss each other three times.

symbols

Easter games with eggs

- There are two Easter games with eggs: "Hunt the egg" and "Egg rolling".

- The legend says an "Easter bunny" hides eggs in the garden and children have to find them on Easter morning. Sometimes the eggs are put in a basket.

- Egg rolling is very popular in England and it's an Easter Monday sport.

Children roll hard-boiled eggs down a hill.

Easter

At Easter people buy new clothes to wear on Easter Sunday.

There is a popular belief that wearing three new things on Easter will bring good luck in the year.

After church services many people like to take walks down the streets in their new Easter hats and suits.

EASTER MONDAY

- Easter Monday is the day after Easter Sunday
- Easter Monday is a bank holiday in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, but not Scotland. In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, many businesses and organizations are closed. Stores are often open to welcome shoppers, but public transport systems may run to a different timetable. There may be some congestion on train services and roads as people return from trips made during their four-day weekend.

