At the top, a navigation bar includes links for BOX OFFICE, MEMBERSHIP, SHOP, CALENDAR, SITE RENTAL, FOLGERPEDIA, and CATALOG. Below this, a secondary menu features VISIT, RESEARCH & SCHOLARS, and TEACH & LEARN. The main content area is divided into three sections: VISIT (with sub-links for PERFORMANCES & EVENTS, SHAKESPEARE, and THE COLLECTION), a central header for Folger SHAKESPEARE LIBRARY, and RESEARCH & SCHOLARS (with a sub-link for TEACH & LEARN). A large banner for 'WONDER OF WILL' is visible on the left. A central menu is open, listing various resources under the heading 'SHAKESPEARE', with 'Shakespeare's Works' highlighted by a red box. To the right, a section titled 'SHAKESPEARE'S WORKS (A-Z)' lists several plays, including 'All's Well That Ends Well', 'Antony and Cleopatra', 'As You Like It', 'The Comedy of Errors', 'Coriolanus', 'Cymbeline', 'Hamlet', and 'Henry IV, Part 1'. A portrait of Shakespeare is shown on the right side of this section. At the bottom, the word 'FOLGER' is written in large white letters, and the text 'First Folio! Shakespeare's American Tour' is displayed in the bottom right corner.

ALL'S WELL that ENDS WELL

Synopsis Characters Contents

Synopsis

In All's Well That Ends Well, a woman is given in marriage to the man she longs for, but, because she is of lower rank, he refuses to accept the marriage. It becomes her challenge to win his acceptance.

Helen, the daughter of a dead physician, secretly loves Bertram, the Count of Rosillion's son. When the count dies, Bertram becomes a ward of the French king, who is dying of a fistula. Helen heals the ailing king, and he grants her wish to marry his ward. Bertram refuses to consummate the marriage and goes off to war, sending Helen a list of seemingly impossible conditions to be met before he will consider her his wife.

To meet his conditions, Helen substitutes herself for a woman whom Bertram desires, and sleeps with him. When false news comes that Helen is dead, Bertram faces the charge that he has killed her. Helen, now pregnant, reappears, saving Bertram and demonstrating that she has met his conditions. Bertram then acknowledges her.

The Walter Scott Digital Archive

The Walter Scott Digital Archive is an Edinburgh University Library online resource created in the Centre for Research Collections. It is designed around our extensive Corson Collection of Walter Scott material. We hope that in time this website will become the main source of information on the life and work of Sir Walter Scott on the web.

	Corson Collection A page on the life and work of James C. Corson, librarian, scholar, and Scott enthusiast and a description of the immense collection of Scott material that he left to Edinburgh University Library.
	Works Pages devoted to each of Scott's novels, narrative poems, and major prose works, providing a synopsis, compositional and publishing history, and account of its original reception by public and critics.
	Biography Pages discussing Scott's family and educational background, literary and professional careers, homes, haunts, and associates.
	Image Collection A database illustrating the visual materials and realia contained in the Corson Collection, including portraits, art inspired by Scott's novels and poems, pictures of places associated with Scott, and a wide range of memorabilia.
	Forthcoming Events A list of forthcoming conferences, papers, lectures, talks, and other events relating to all aspects of Scott's life and work, together with an archive of recent events.
