

Good day!

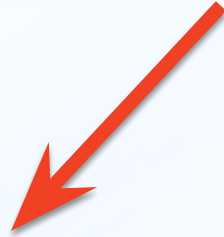

My name is Marina Smolentseva.

I have been working in the Territorial Authority of the Federal State Statistics Service for the Chelyabinsk Region as the chief expert since 2008.

I am currently studying at the South Ural State University as a master.

My research work will be the study of housing and communal services of the Chelyabinsk region.

A man in a dark suit and a red and white striped tie is pointing his right index finger towards a presentation board. The board contains several panels: a yellow building, a white building with a sign that says 'ИЦЕНА', a bar chart, and two cartoon characters. The text 'Thanks for attention!' is overlaid in the center of the image.

Thanks for attention!
