

The small vocabulary

Hey, guys! When you are in a foreign country, you have to communicate with local people. Unfortunately, not so many Russians speak English, that's why we prepared for you the list of typical touristic words. Hope it will help you in different situations. If you don't find here the words you need, don't be shy to ask us! 😊

Hello - Zdrastvuite

Goodbye - Do svidaniya

Thank you - Spasibo

Please/you are welcome - Pozhalusta

Excuse me - Izvinite

My name is... - Menya zovut...

I'm from... - Ya iz...

I'm an intern - Ya stazhor

I forgot my documents - Ya zabil svoi dokumenti

I don't speak Russian - Ya ne govoru po russki

I don't understand - Ya ne ponimayu

I speak English - Ya govoru po angliski

Do you speak English? - Vi govorite po angliski?

Help – Pomogite

Where is the metro station? – Gde stantsiya metro?

Where is the shop? – Gde magazin?

Where is the toilet? – Gde tualet?

How much does it cost? – Skol'ko eto stoit?

Could you give me a discount? – Mogli bi vi dat' mne skidku?

What time is it now? – Kotori sechas chas?

How can I go to..? – Kak mne proiti k..?

Where is the cash machine? – Gde bankomat?

Where can I buy a ticket? – Gde ya mogu kupit' bilet?

Where is the bus stop? – Gde ostanovka avtobusa?

Where is the aero express? – Gde aero express?

Let me call on the phone, please – Daite mne pozvonit' po telefonu pozgaluista

Left/right – Nalevo/napravo

I get lost, my address is... – Ya poteryalsya, moi adres...

This is my bag – Eto moya sumka

I love Russia – Ya lublu Rossiyu!!! 😊

The souvenirs

You can't leave our country without souvenirs! Of course, you can buy it at the Red Square or on the Arbat Street, but we know the special place with really cheap souvenirs and a huge choice! Don't forget – you can bargain on price! ;)

Address:

Partizanskaya metro station,
Izmailovskaya Road, 73 zh
“Vernisage”

Working hours:

Wednesday /Saturday/Sunday
9:00-18:00

www.moscow-vernissage.com

