A table set for a meal. In the foreground, there is a large, round, golden-brown flatbread on a wooden plate. To its left is a dark, ornate metal bottle. In the background, a wicker basket contains several pieces of bread. A glass of dark red wine sits on the table. Several small, round, brown ceramic bowls contain different dishes, including what appears to be a lamb shank and some meat with onions. The table is covered with a patterned cloth featuring floral and geometric designs.
