Welcome to the UK

What do you like about life in the UK? What do you miss about your country? We asked some immigrant children.

Jelena, 16, Croatia

I miss my friends but I'm happy. The people here are very friendly. I arrived last year and my English wasn't very good. At first, it was difficult at school but my teachers were nice. I like the UK. I love the sea. There are some beautiful beaches here. British school dinners are okay but I prefer my mum's cooking! Croatian food is really tasty!

Ebru, 15, Turkey

The UK is very different from my country. In Turkey the sky is blue but here it's usually grey! On the first day of school, I was unhappy. Everything was so different but now I've got lots of friends. In the UK, boys and girls usually go to the same school; in Turkey there weren't any boys in my school. There are lots of good things here. The TV is great – I'm a big fan of EastEnders! But I miss my family in Turkey, especially my grandparents, and I miss our delicious Turkish food!

Daniel, 13, Argentina

I arrived in Newcastle from London by bus. We crossed the river and I remember the bridges. I was sad. Now I think it's a fantastic city. The weather here is different – it's always cold and rainy. I miss some of my favourite TV programmes in Argentina. I like the UK but I want to live in Spain because they speak Spanish there – and it's warm!

 kind or unkind to them! A frightened really angry swan can break a man's leg
 its strong wings!

Swans live on rivers and lakes. But in the winter months, some might live near the sea because salt water is usually a little than river water. Swans don't usually fly very far from the place they build their nests. It takes between 35 and 42 days for a baby swan, which called a 'cygnet', to break open its egg!
