

THE LATEST APPROACHES TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF STATE AND MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT

AGRBA NIKITA, LAPSHIN ALEXANDR

GMU 3-4

CONTENT

1. Public administration
2. Areas of government improvement
3. Goals and ways to achieve a state management organization
4. Conclusion

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Public administration is the organizing executive and administrative activity of state bodies, carried out on the basis of and pursuant to laws and consisting in the day-to-day performance of state functions.

DIRECTION OF IMPROVEMENT GOVERNMENT

1.

- Legal direction

2.

- Organizational direction

3.

- Information and technical direction

Three forming subsystems:

- Administrative and organizational
- Technical
- Management system

Goals and Ways to Achieve a State Management Organization

The main goal of any management actions is to respect the public interest. Unlike private interests, which are secured and regulated through the market, public interest is formed as a balance of people's interests, expressing public recognition.

Goals

Objective

Tasks

prerequisites

CONCLUSION

