The house is hung with cedar boughs,
There's Christmas in the air,
The gifts are tied with tinsel bows
And hidden everywhere.

Our days are filled with happiness,
And all our hearts are merry.
We feel as gay and shining bright
As any holly berry.

Our dearest friends trip in and out
And greet the family.
A silver star is gleaming on
The tip-top of the tree.

When blessed Christmastide is here,
Our lives reflect its glow,
As joy of heaven kindles joy
Upon the earth below.
