

A contemporary take on the classic Arthur Conan Doyle stories, Sherlock is a thrilling, funny, fast-paced adventure series set in present-day London. Co-created by Steven Moffat (Doctor Who, Coupling) and Mark Gatiss, Sherlock stars BAFTA-nominee Benedict Cumberbatch (Hawking, Amazing Grace) as the new Sherlock Holmes and Martin Freeman (The Office, Love Actually), as his loyal friend, Doctor John Watson. Rupert Graves plays Inspector Lestrade. The iconic details from Conan Doyle's original books remain - they live at the same address, have the same names and, somewhere out there, Moriarty is waiting for them. And so across three thrilling, scary, action-packed and highly modern-day adventures, Sherlock and John navigate a maze of cryptic clues and lethal killers to get at the truth.

STRUCTURE

- Introduction Введение
- Main body Основная часть
- Conclusion ВЫВОДЫ

INTRODUCTION

- A basic introduction to the film/book
- What sort of film/book is it?
- Who is the director/author?
- Who are the stars?
- When was it made/written?
- Did it win any awards?
- If it is a book: was the book filmed?

MAIN BODY

2nd paragraph:

A basic summery of the plot. What happens? (This is often done in the Present Simple)

3rd paragraph:

The strong points of the film/book, or the weak points, or both (remember to use contrasting expressions: however, on the other hand, in contrast). It's good idea to try and think of one negative aspect of a good film/book or one positive aspect of a bad film/book, if you can. It makes review look more balanced.

CONCLUSION

- Sum up, give your final opinion. Would you recommend the film/book to people?
- What sort of people?
- How does it compare with similar films/books, films by the same director/author, the sequel or prequel, etc?

3 Underline the correct word/phrase.

A. Films

- 1 The film Apocalypto had a cast/script of hundreds.
- 2 The Queen is an outstanding film based on/set in the life of Elizabeth II.
- 3 Most of the film was rather boring, but it did have an interesting twist/script at the end.
- 4 Chicago is one of the best films I've seen in a long time. It's sure to be a hit/flop.
- 5 Nicole Kidman tells the story/plays the part of Virginia Woolf in the film The Hours.
- 6 Daniel Radcliffe plays the main character/actor in the Harry Potter films.
- 7 The story had such a dull/tragic end that I left the cinema in tears.

B. Books

- 1 This is the author's/creator's third novel.
- 2 The first episode/chapter of the book is rather slow-moving.
- 3 Touching the Void tells the true/real story of two climbers' disastrous attempt to climb Siula Grande.
- 4 This is one of the best books I've ever read. It's bound to become a best-seller/high-seller.
- 5 The people/characters in the novel are very well developed.
- 6 I found the book so exciting that I couldn't put it away/down.
- 7 The novel is set in/based on Victorian times.

King Kong

Which paragraph mentions:
~~The writer's~~ absolute?? recommendation?

- 1 King Kong is Peter Jackson's breathtaking remake of the classic 1933 film about a giant gorilla. It is an action adventure film set in New York City in the 1930s that won three Oscars.
- 2 The plot is both gripping and terrifying. A film-maker takes his cast and crew on a boat to explore a mystery island. When they get there, they meet unfriendly natives, dinosaurs and all kinds of huge animals and insects. Those who escape head back to New York with an unwanted guest on board!
- 3 The acting is brilliant. The biggest star of the movie is obviously King Kong himself, but Naomi Watts is extremely believable as the woman King Kong falls in love with. Jack Black gives a spectacular performance as the ambitious film-maker. As for the special effects, they are absolutely fantastic!
- 4 All in all, King Kong is one of the best films I've seen in a long while. It's perhaps a little long at 3 hours 10 minutes, but apart from that it's an outstanding film. If you only see one film this year, this should be it!
