3 Choose the word that fits best.

1 It sure was kind / witty of you to give that old lady your seat on the tram.
2 Gemma seems so confident / gentle it's hard to believe it's her first month here.
3 All his life he has been a loyal / bossy supporter of the Green Party.
4 It wasn't very polite / witty of you to reach across the table and grab that man's food off his plate. You don't even know him!
5 My dogs are both very cheerful / loyal to me since they know I'll always feed them.
6 She is so obstinate / chatty — she won't let anyone help her.
7 Mike always keeps his promises — he is easy to get along with / reliable.

5 Fill in the gaps with who or which.

● Refer to the Grammar Reference if necessary.

1 Beatrice is a person _____ challenges us.

2 She is a great teacher _____ helps me to learn a lot about British novels and poetry.

3 A person _____ has a good head on his shoulders is intelligent.

4 Honesty is the quality _____ I value most in my friends.

5 A person _____ _____ never lets you down is reliable.

6 A gentle person is a person _____ is nice and kind, never angry.

7 He is a sweet, gentle boy _____ wouldn't hurt a fly.

8 Jack always sounds so positive and confident that I can't find any argument _____ could beat him.

9 A person _____ likes socialising is usually easy to get along with.

10 Karen's very loyal, she never says a word _____ can hurt her friends.

6 Make sentences out of two parts using who or which.

Julia is a very intelligent girl	can always explain how to solve very difficult problems
He wrote a letter	was passed to the host family
Jack is a witty person	knows a lot of jokes
She gave me a present	I liked very much
She has a good imagination	helps her in painting
I admire sporty people	are always cheerful and full of energy

- Choose nouns out of the first parts of the sentences. Make new sentences with them, using phrases "quite (a)", "such a", rather…, so…

  E. g.: She is quite an intelligent girl.