

How does brand success depend on unique logo design?

Daria Kaverzina
and Katya Kim group 13833/4

Logo Design is the most precious and powerful tool known and an important aspect of the business marketing.

Purpose for Creating Logo

Logos are graphical presentation of a company's unique identification and even they give essential information about a company

Return on Investment (ROI)

Every brand or a company must know the Importance of Logo Design. As customers grow to know, like and trust a particular brand, they are more probable to respond positively to successive meets with a logo-potentially leading to raised sales or enhanced mind shares within the target market. Additionally, a well-designed logo involves a degree of competence and professionalism that could help steer likely new customers towards choosing the business rather than a competitor with no or substandard logos.

Return on Investment

A well-designed logo involves a degree of competence and professionalism that could help steer likely new customers towards choosing the business rather than a competitor with no or substandard logos.

flur

Logo Creates Your Image

It's very necessary for a logo to keep a meaning to reflect something unique and specific to the subconscious brain of the consumer, to keep it apart from the rest of the competition.

FUTURE
LONDON ACADEMY

FedEx®

FedEx®

Logo Coagulates Consumer Loyalty

GAP

Gap

Apple's First Logo (1976)

1976-1998

Current logo