

QUESTION TAGS

- Question tags are short questions that can follow sentences, especially in spoken English.
- We use question tags to ask if something is true or to ask people to agree with us.

FORM

- Positive statement - question tag negative
- Negative statement - question tag positive

EXAMPLES

- With the verb to be

You are a teacher, aren't you?

She is beautiful, isn't she?

- NB the short form with I am is aren't I

I'm late, aren't I?

- With the verb to have

You've got a dog, haven't you?

He hasn't lost his key, has he?

- With other verbs (do, don't, did, didn't etc.)

They don't play football, do they?

They went to the cinema yesterday, didn't they?

- With modal verbs

They can drive, can't they?

You won't lie to me, will you?

- Exception: Let's is followed by shall we

Let's go for a walk, shall we?

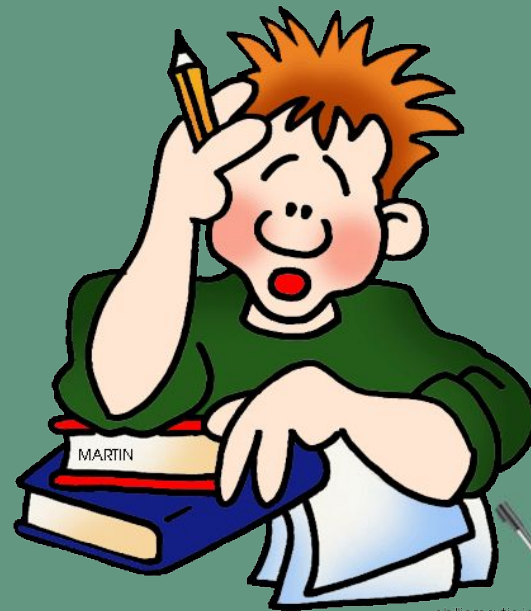

Let' practise, shall we?

- He studies very hard, _____?

does he?

doesn't he?

philiemartin.info

- He has arrived late, _____

hasn't he?

has he?

philipmartin@no

- She doesn't know where to go, _____

does she?

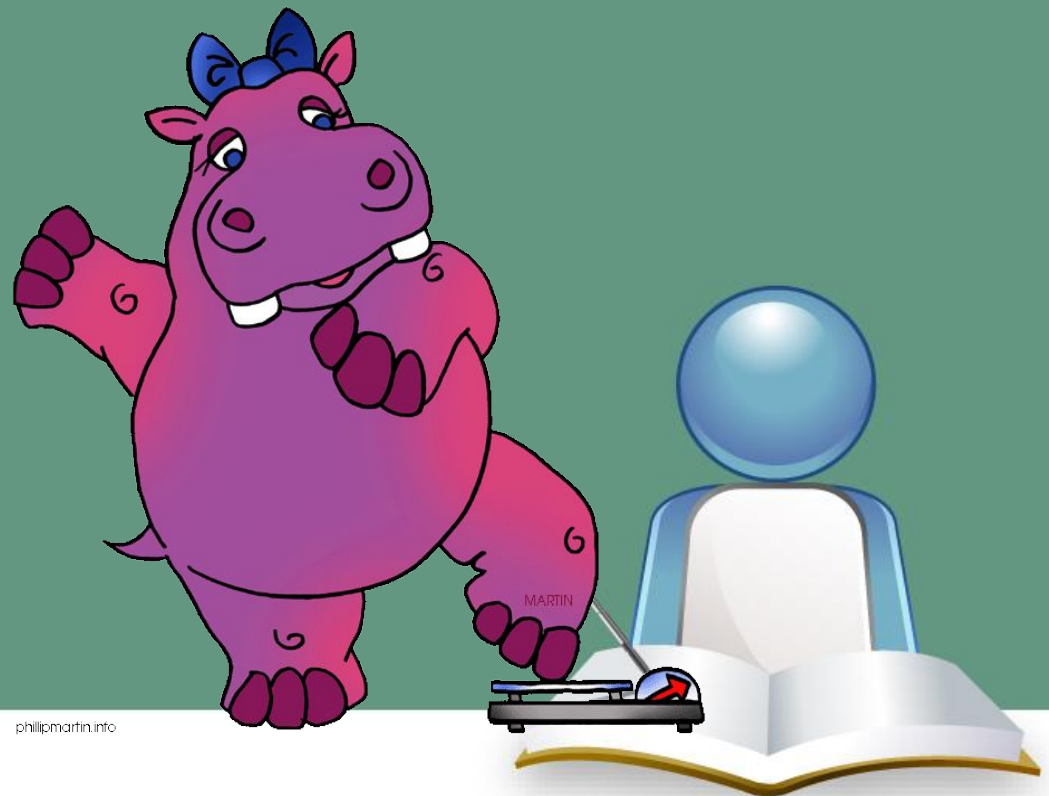

doesn't she?

• I'm charming, _____

amn't I?

aren't I?

phillipmartin.info

- They will always be happy, _____

aren't they?

won't they?

Thanks for attention

phillipmartin.info

Created by Gordana

