

Superior Commercial Court of Ukraine.

The background of the image shows several old, dark-colored books. Some of the visible titles in Ottoman Turkish script include "Kur'an-ı Kerim", "Kanun", "Mevzuat", and "Maddeler". The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent dark green rectangle.

Superior Commercial Court of Ukraine is the specialized court of cassation instance that review commercial affairs between and among the corporate bodies. It is at the head of commercial court system in Ukraine. This type of judicial specialization is also called as economic or business proceeding (ligitation).

Judicial reform of 2016 in Ukraine provides for the elimination of the Superior Commercial Court of Ukraine for six months. Its material base passed to the new Supreme Court.

Imperium of Superior Commercial Court of Ukraine:

In according to the act of judicial machinery of Ukraine, the court reviews acts of the local and appeal courts under cassational procedure. It also explores and unify the court practice, analyzes the court statistic, methodically helps and gives recommendation of identical applying of commercial legislation for lower courts.

Superior Commercial Court of Ukraine consists of presiding officer of the court, his first assistant, other assistances and judges of court.