

Copenhagen - the capital of Denmark

- Copenhagen is the capital and largest city of Denmark, built on the Islands of Zealand, Slotsholmen and Amager in the öresund Strait, which connects the North sea and the Baltic sea. In ancient Danish, the name of the city means "Harbor for traders". Copenhagen is home to 615 993 people, and together with the suburban areas with a population of about 1.5 million people (in 2018)

Danish capital was recognized as the healthiest city in the world, it has the best environment among other European capitals. Also Copenhagen took the first place in the category of road safety.

Copenhagen is known worldwide as the city of Hans Christian Andersen. The Danish capital welcomes travelers from different countries and is considered the most

Københavns
Rådhus

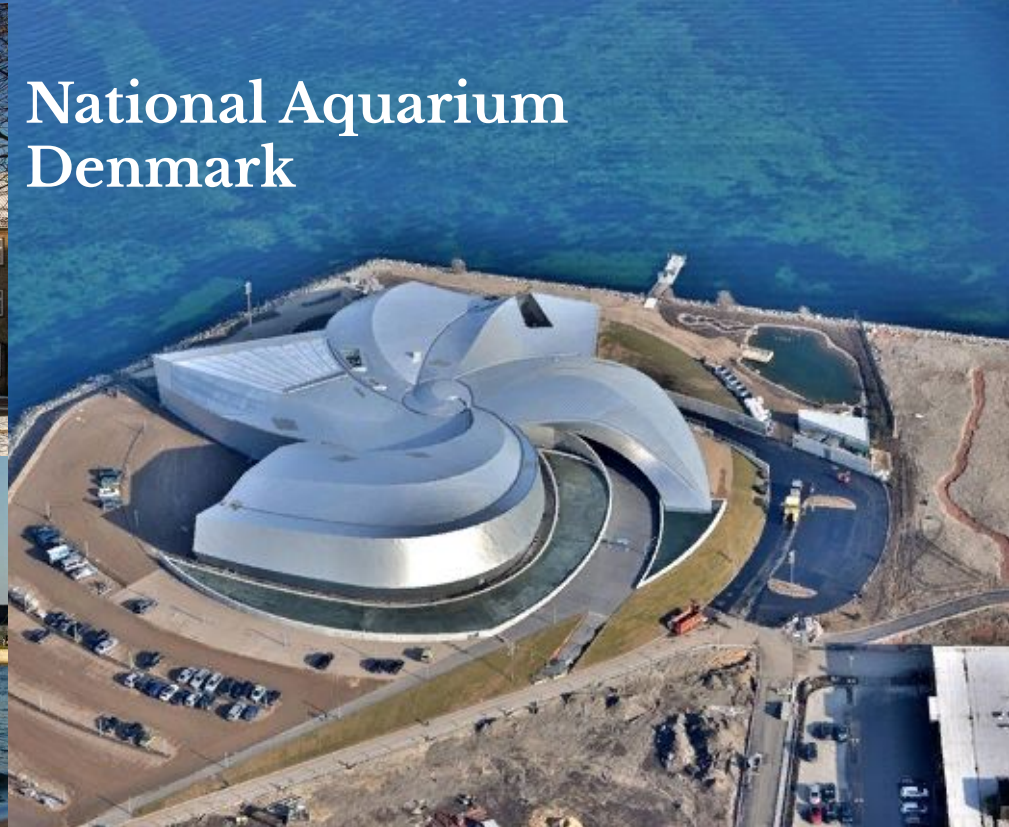

Rosenborg
Castle

Grundtvig
Church

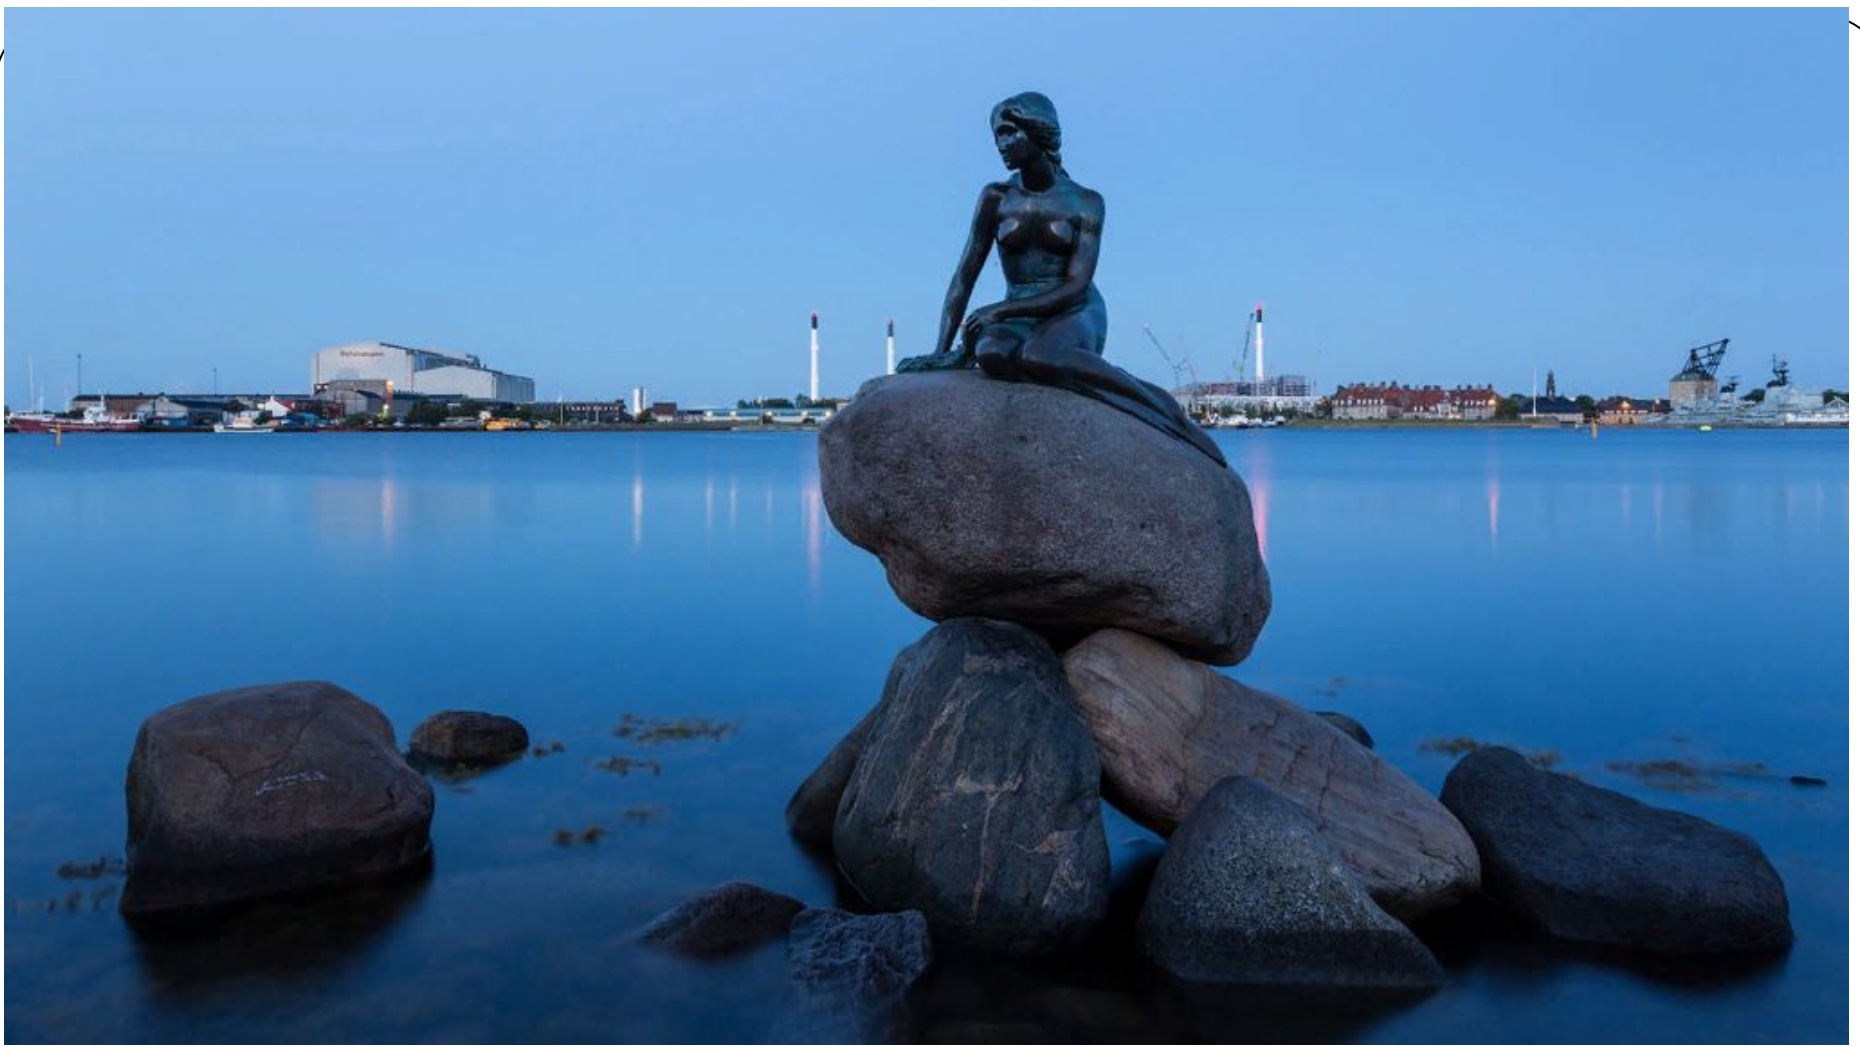

National Aquarium
Denmark

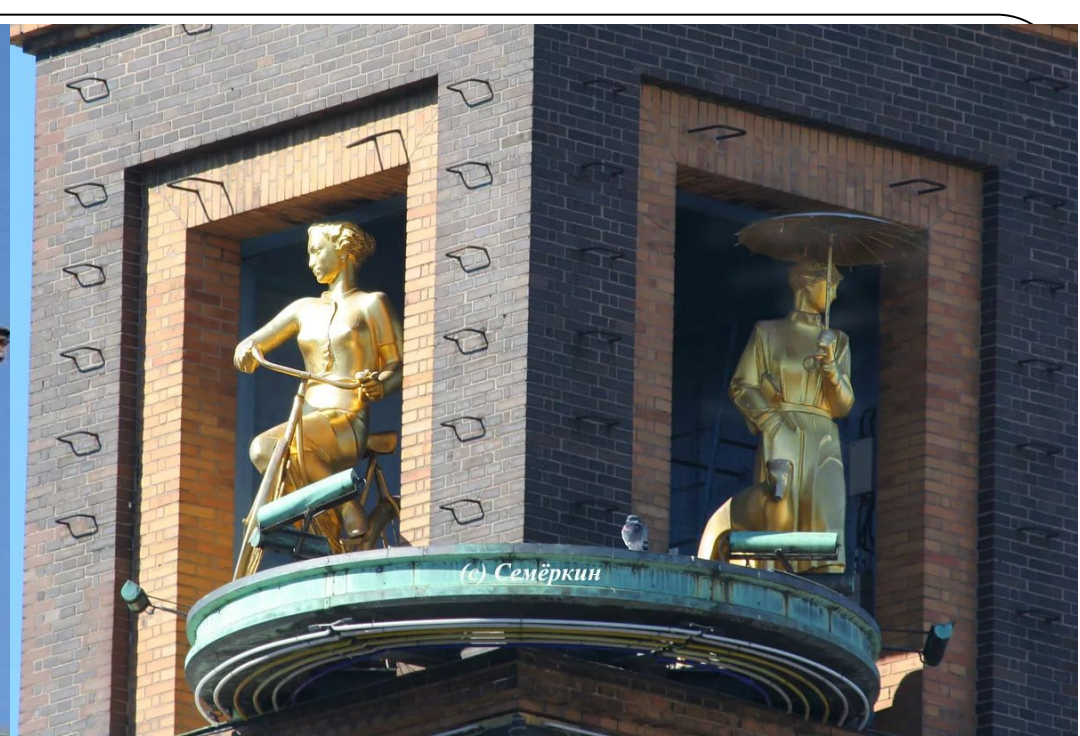

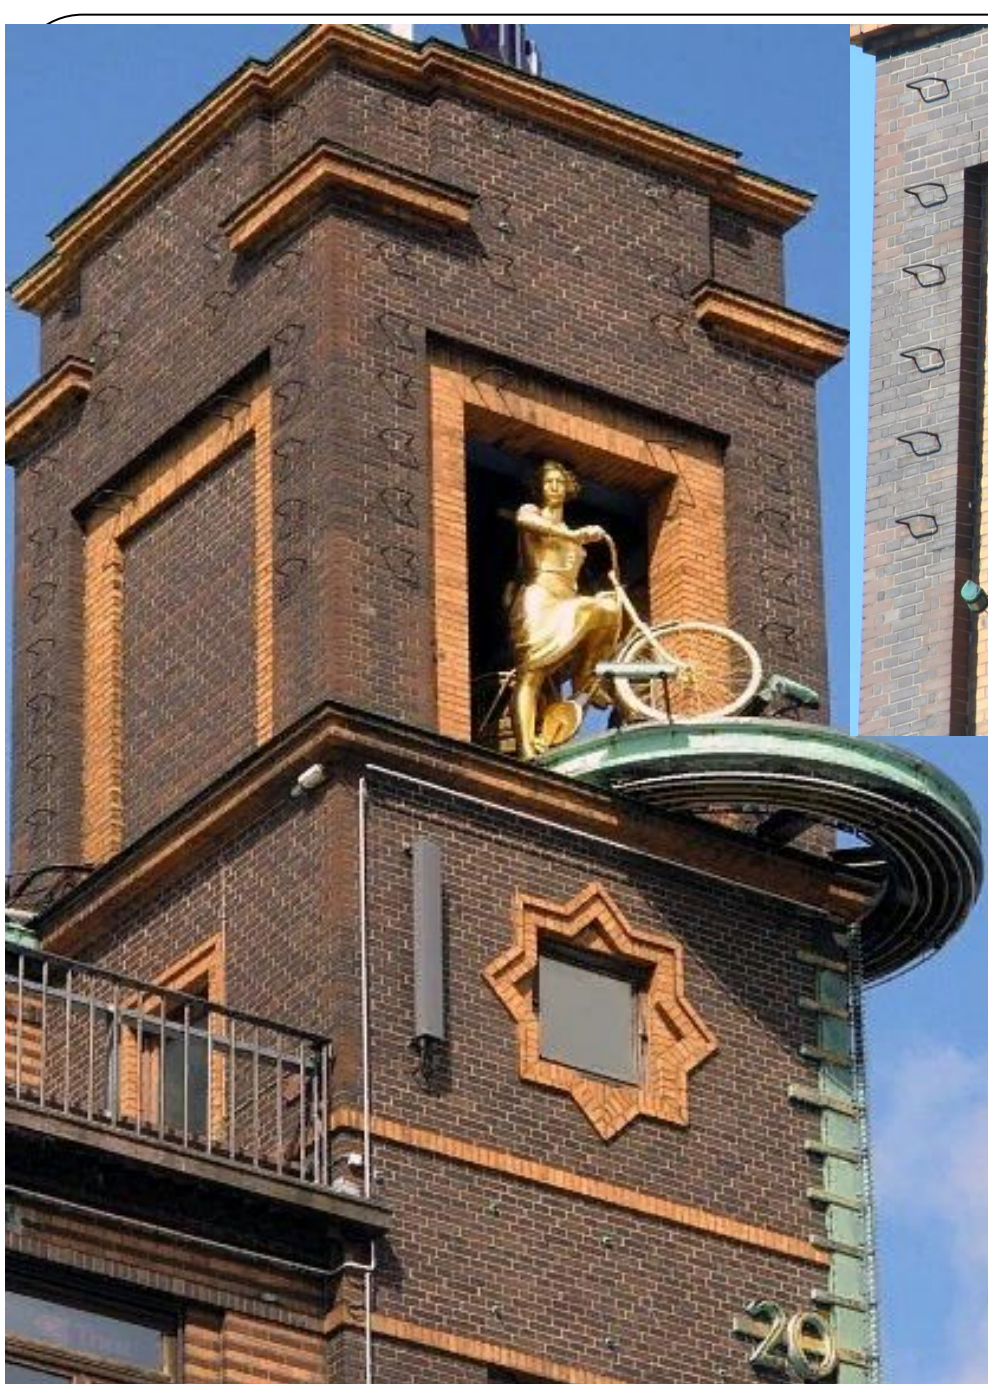

The Royal Danish Opera
House

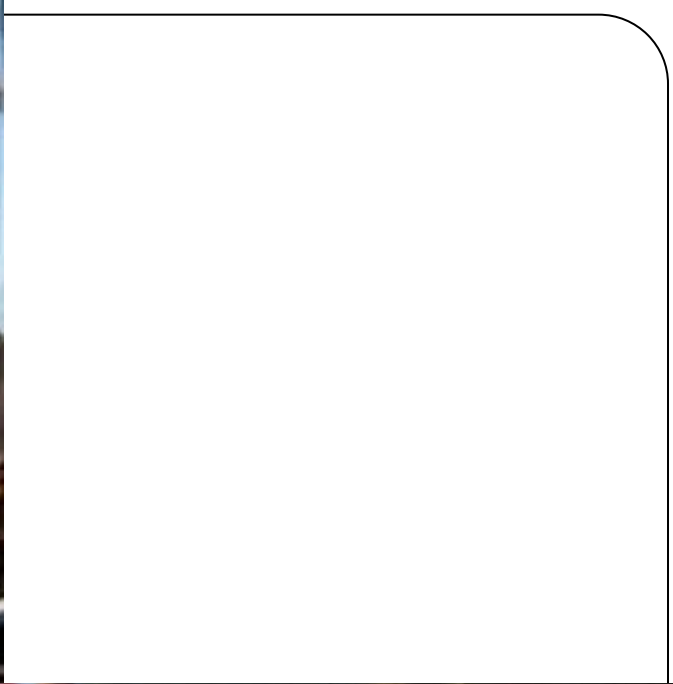

- The hallmark of Copenhagen is considered a sculpture of the little Mermaid (the Little Mermaid), dedicated to the heroine of one of the famous fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen.

On one of the towers of the city hall there are unusual images of the weather forecast.

The cult of the Bicycle

Thank you for your attention!