

Jolly Old ENGLAND

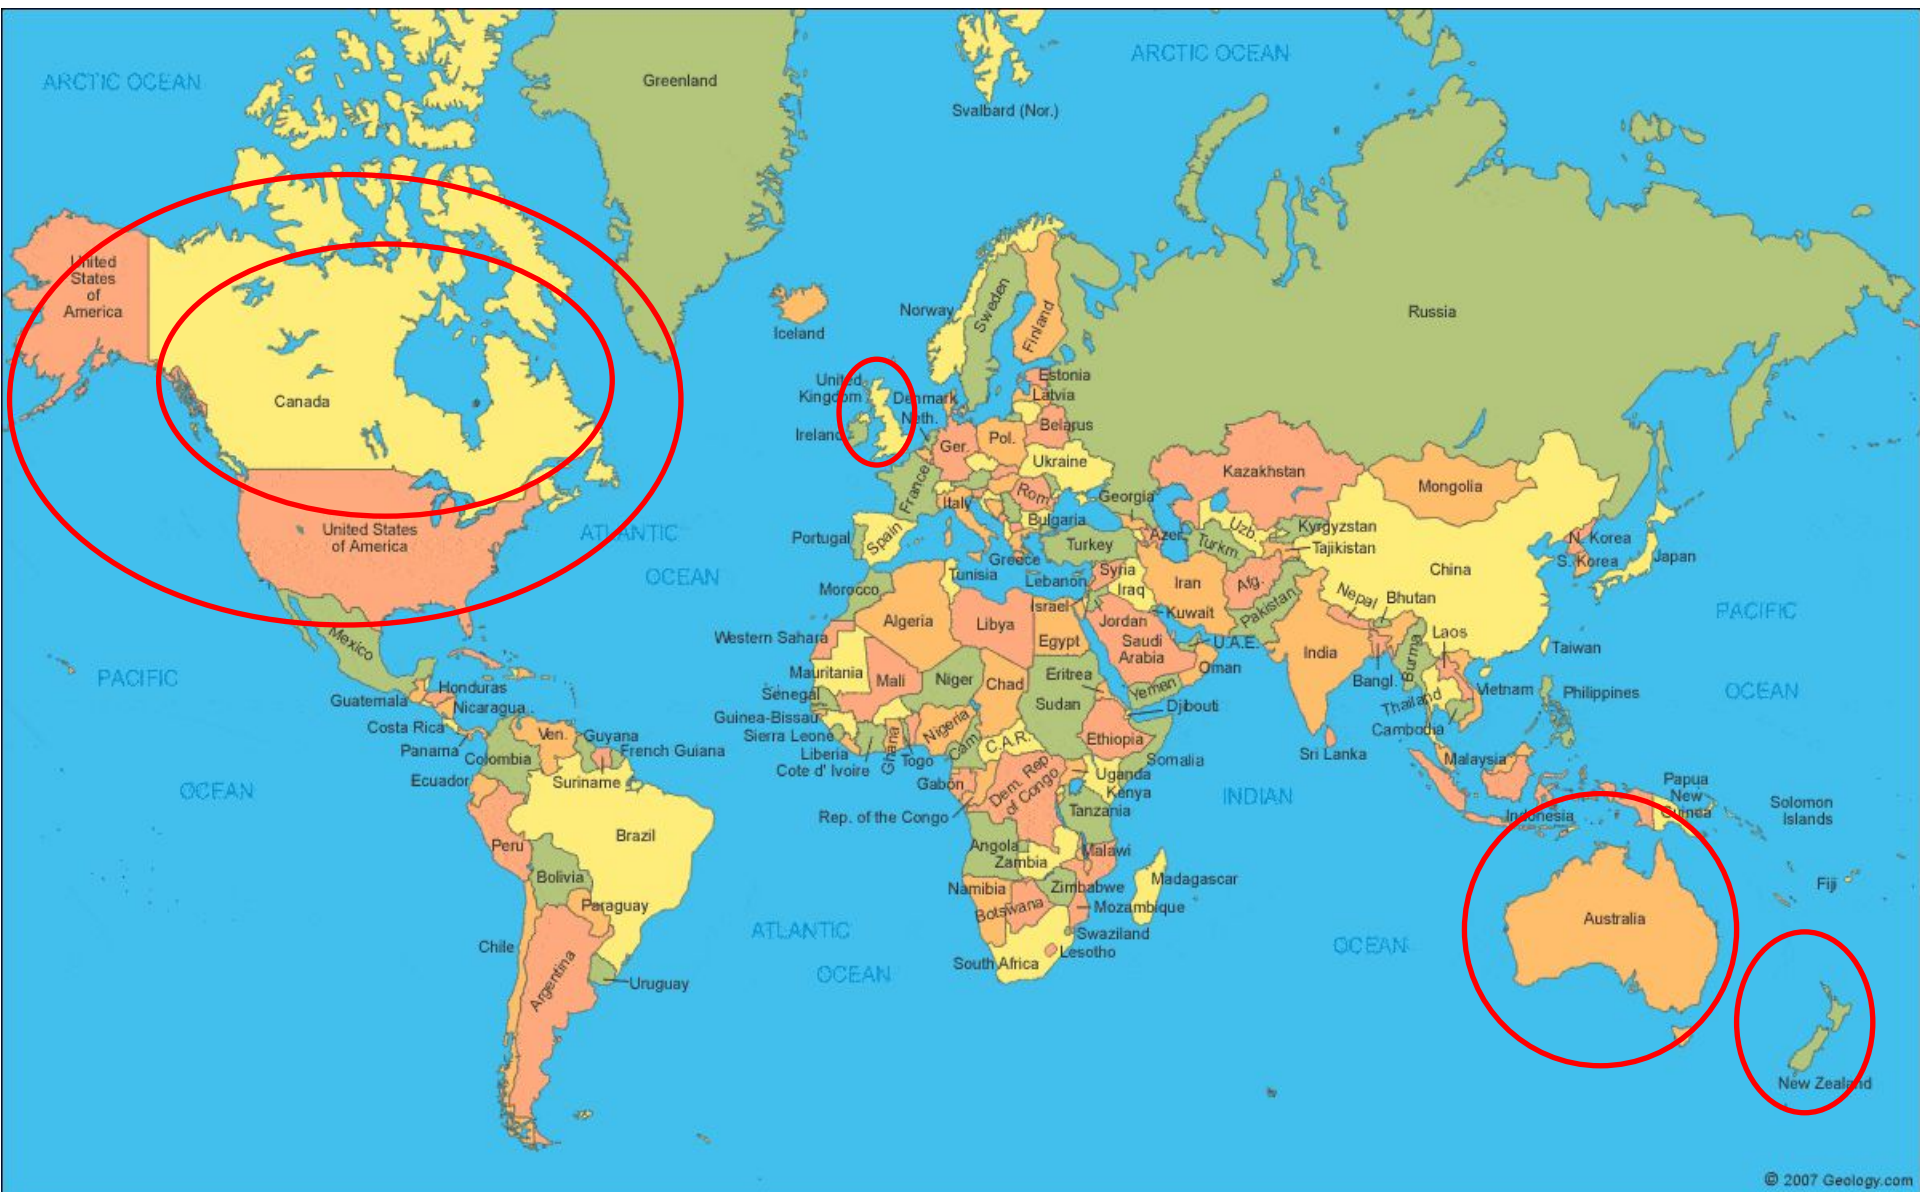

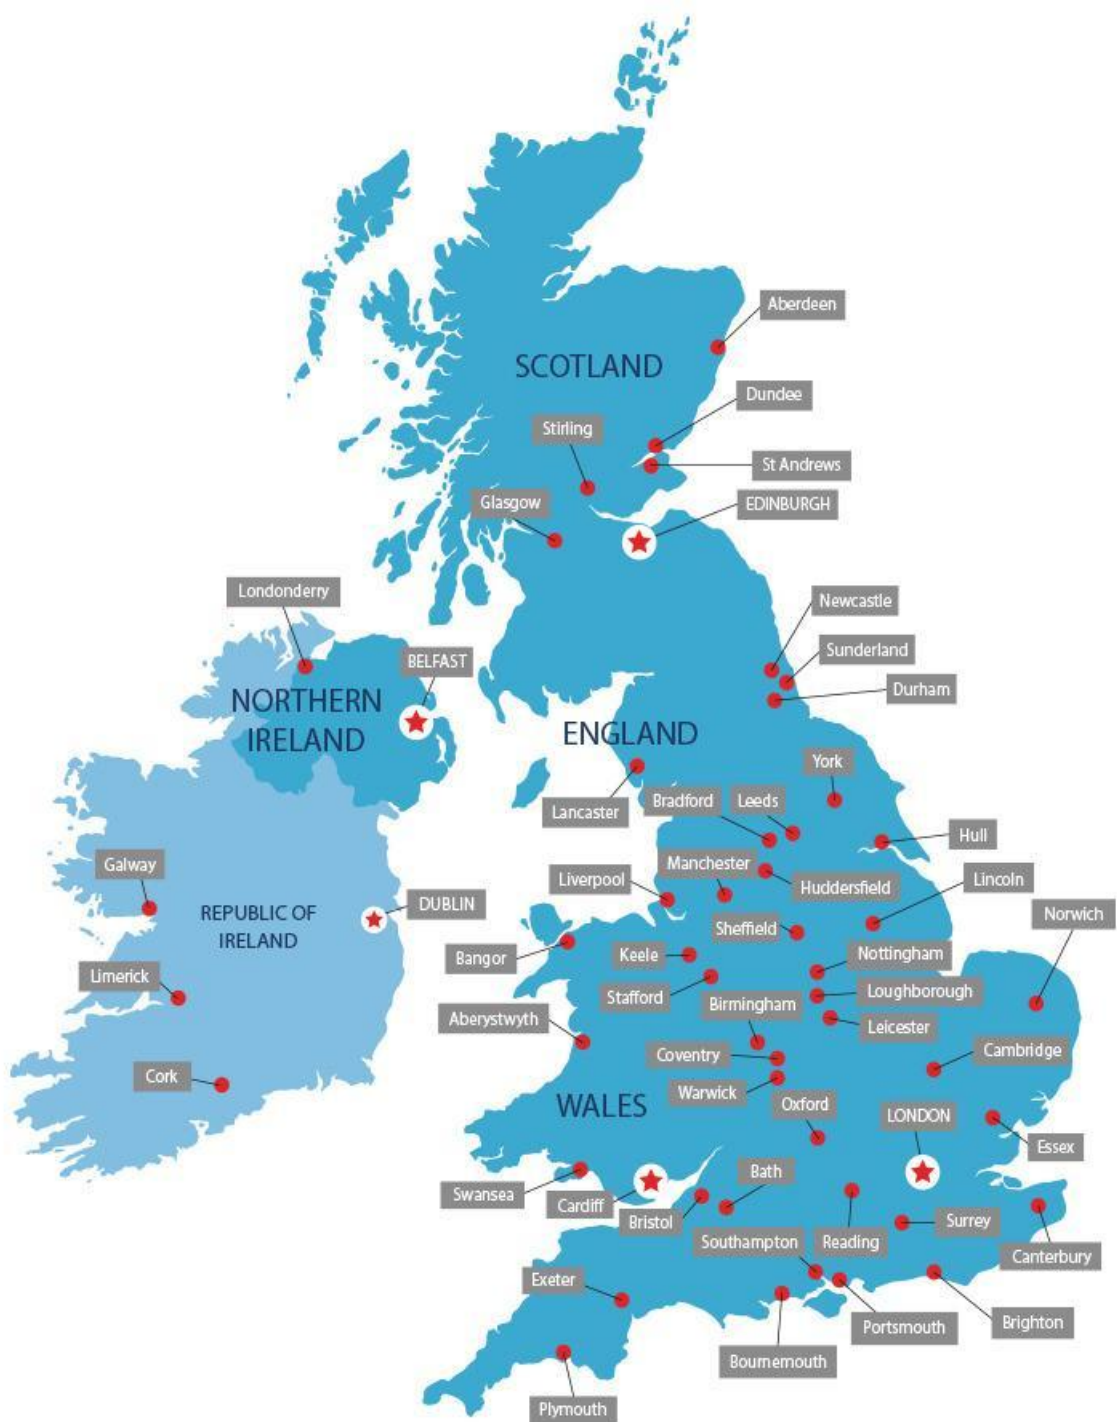

MARY POPPINS

WE SPEAK ENGLISH!

*At the ...
... upon the ...
... emotion ...
... abhorrent to his cold, precise but ...
... most perfect reasoning and observing ...
... or he would have placed himself in a false posit ...
... one, was with a gift and a tower. They were adm ...
... for drawing the veil from man's motives and actions ...
... about such intentions into his own delicate and finely ...
... and introduce a distracting factor which might throw a doubt ...
... all in a sensitive instrument, or a crack in one of his own ...
... he more disturbing than a strong emotion in a return such as ...
... of one woman to him, and that woman was the late Irene Adler, ...
... venable memory. I had seen little of Holmes lately. My marriage had ...
... My own complete happiness, and the home-centred ...
... a man who first finds himself master of his own estate ...
... absorb all my attention, while Holmes, who loathed every form ...
... about the human soul, remained in our lodgings in Baker Street, ...
... a old books, and alternating from week to week between ...
... drowsiness of the drug, and the fierce energy of his own ...
... 'ly attracted by the study of crime, and occupie ...
... direct powers of observation in following out ...
... ies which had been abandoned as hopeless by ...
... I heard some vague account of his doings; of his summe ...
... order, of his clearing up of the singular tragedy of ...
... d finally of the mission which he had accomplished ...
... ring family of Holland. Beyond these signs of his activity ...
... he read ...
... of March, 1888-I was returning from a jo ...
... ing, when my way led me through Baker ...
... in my hall, I saw a figure pass below in a dark silke ...
... ally, eagerly, with his head sunk upon his chest ...
... knew his every mood and ...
... in. He had risen out ...
... on. I rapped the bell ...
... manner was not ...
... spoken, but ...
... e again ...*

Dogs

tea

coffee

scrambled eggs

beans

toasts

bacon

sausages

jam

It's raining cats and dogs –
ИДЁТ СИЛЬНЫЙ ДОЖДЬ

When pigs fly – Когда сви́ньи
ПОЛЕТЯТ

