

* Не забывайте использовать BUT

I can see but I can't see

There is / There are but There isn't / There aren't

In picture A but In picture B

there is a man by the desk.
He is wearing black trousers.

Now here are two pictures. My picture is nearly the same as yours, but some things are different. For example, in my picture there are two planes, but in your picture there is only one. OK?

Find the difference

Examiner's copy

it's half past three.

it's a sunny day.

there is a girl. She is standing
next to a table.

there is a flower on every table.

there are four tables near the window.

Find the difference

Candidate's copy

Now here are two pictures. My picture is nearly the same as yours, but some things are different. For example, in my picture it's raining, but in your picture it's a sunny day. OK?

Find the difference

Examiner's copy

In my picture, there is a man in the red jacket.
He is drinking coffee.

In my picture, it's ten o'clock.

In my picture, there are 6 cups on the table.

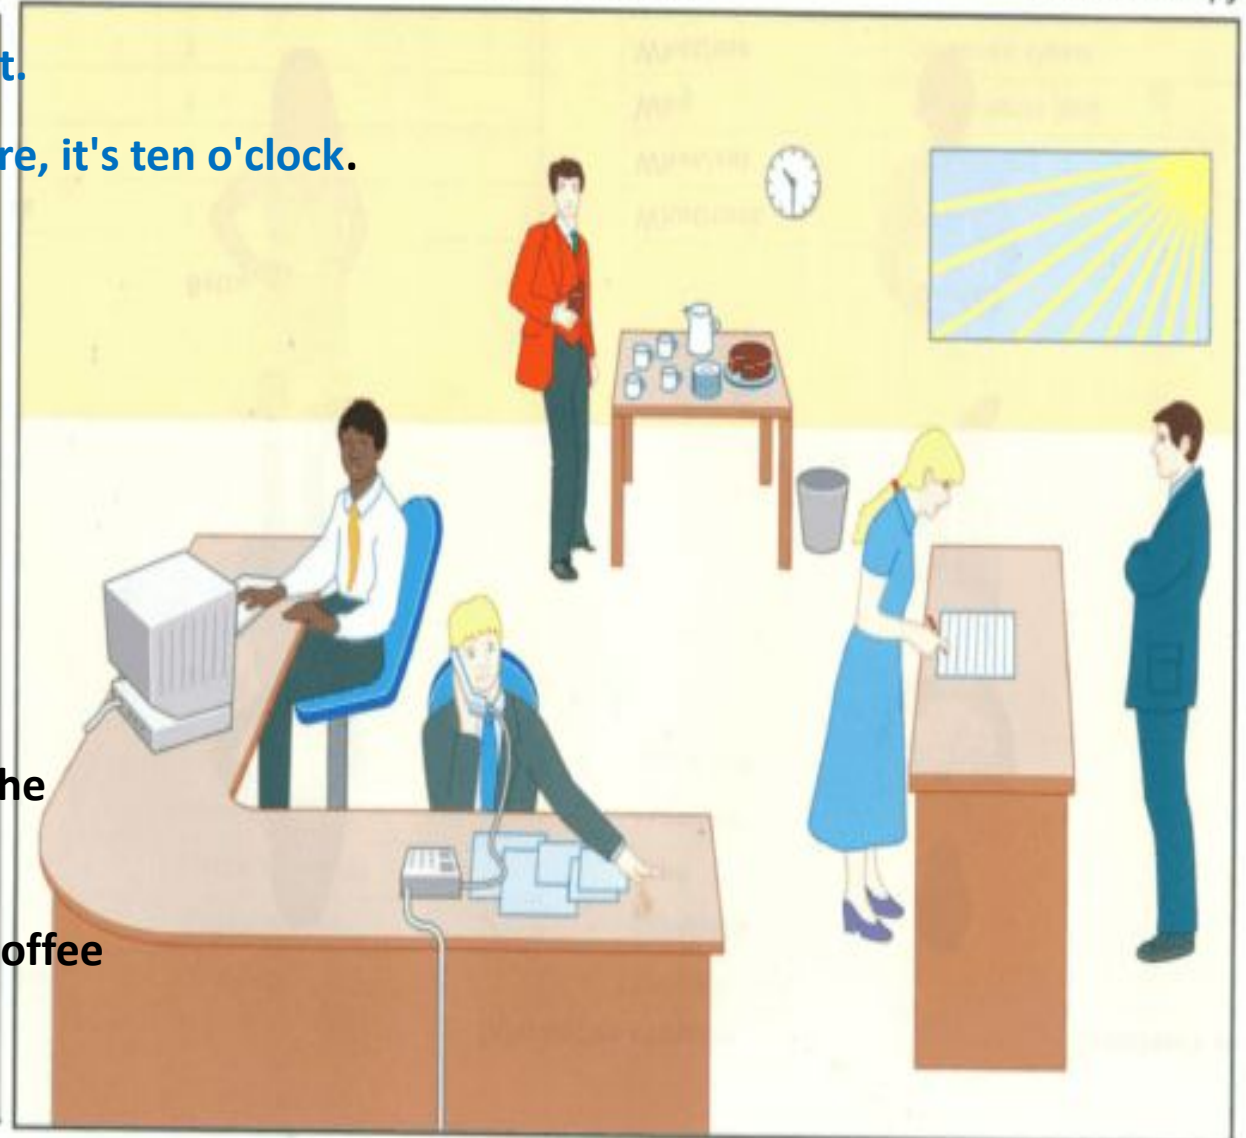

In my picture, it's a rainy day.

In my picture, there is a computer. The woman is using it.

In my picture, there is a bin under the coffee table.

Find the difference

Candidate's copy

Now here are two pictures. My picture is nearly the same as yours, but some things are different. For example, a woman in my picture is wearing a hat, but in your picture she isn't. OK?

I am going to say something about my picture.
You tell me how your picture is different.
In my picture, the umbrella is green.

Examiner's copy

Find the difference

Candidate's copy

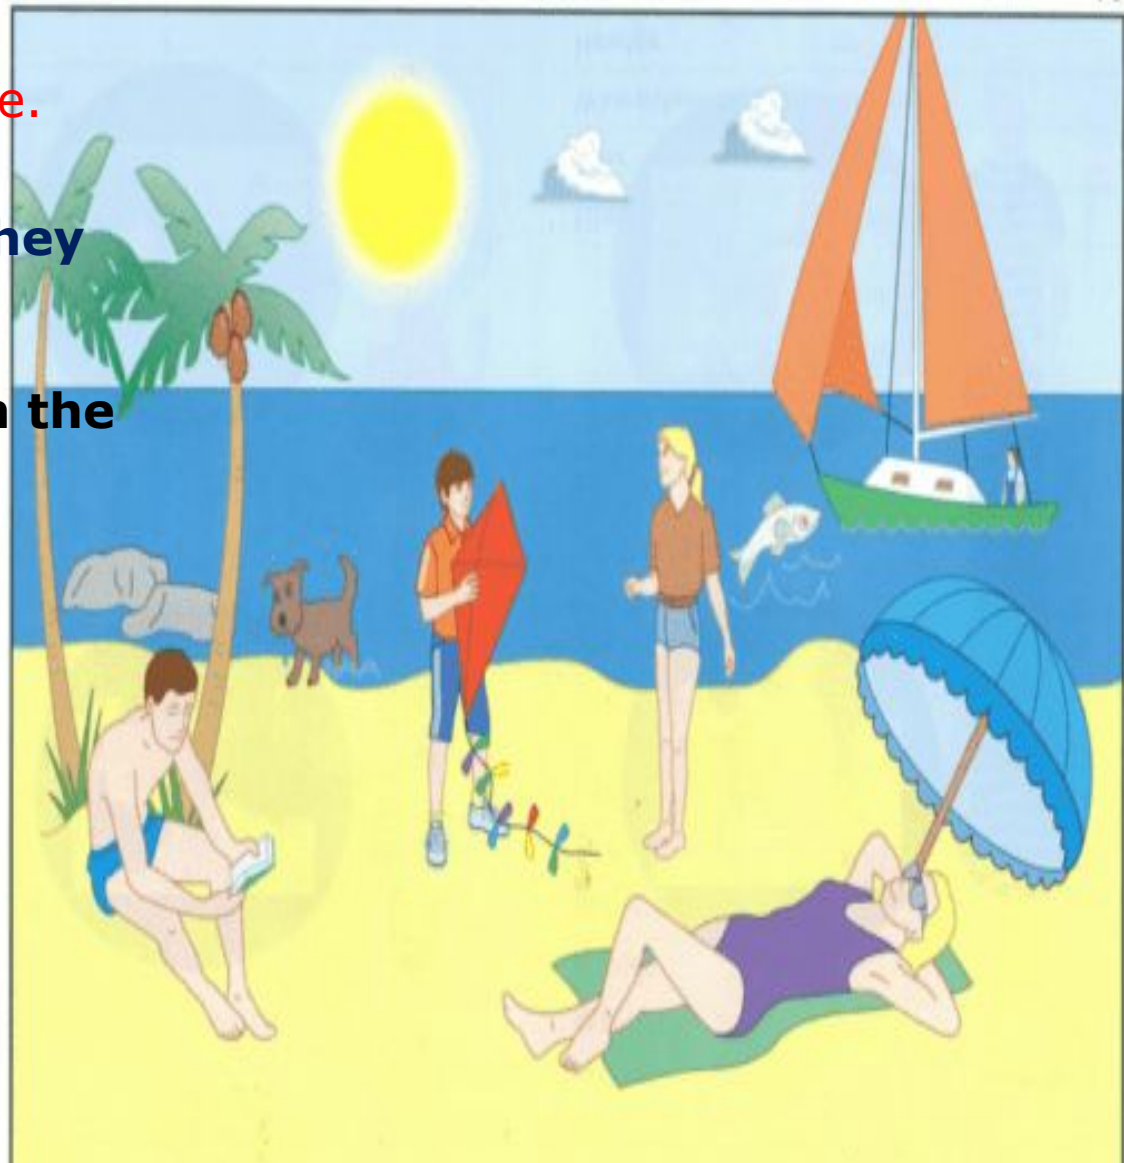

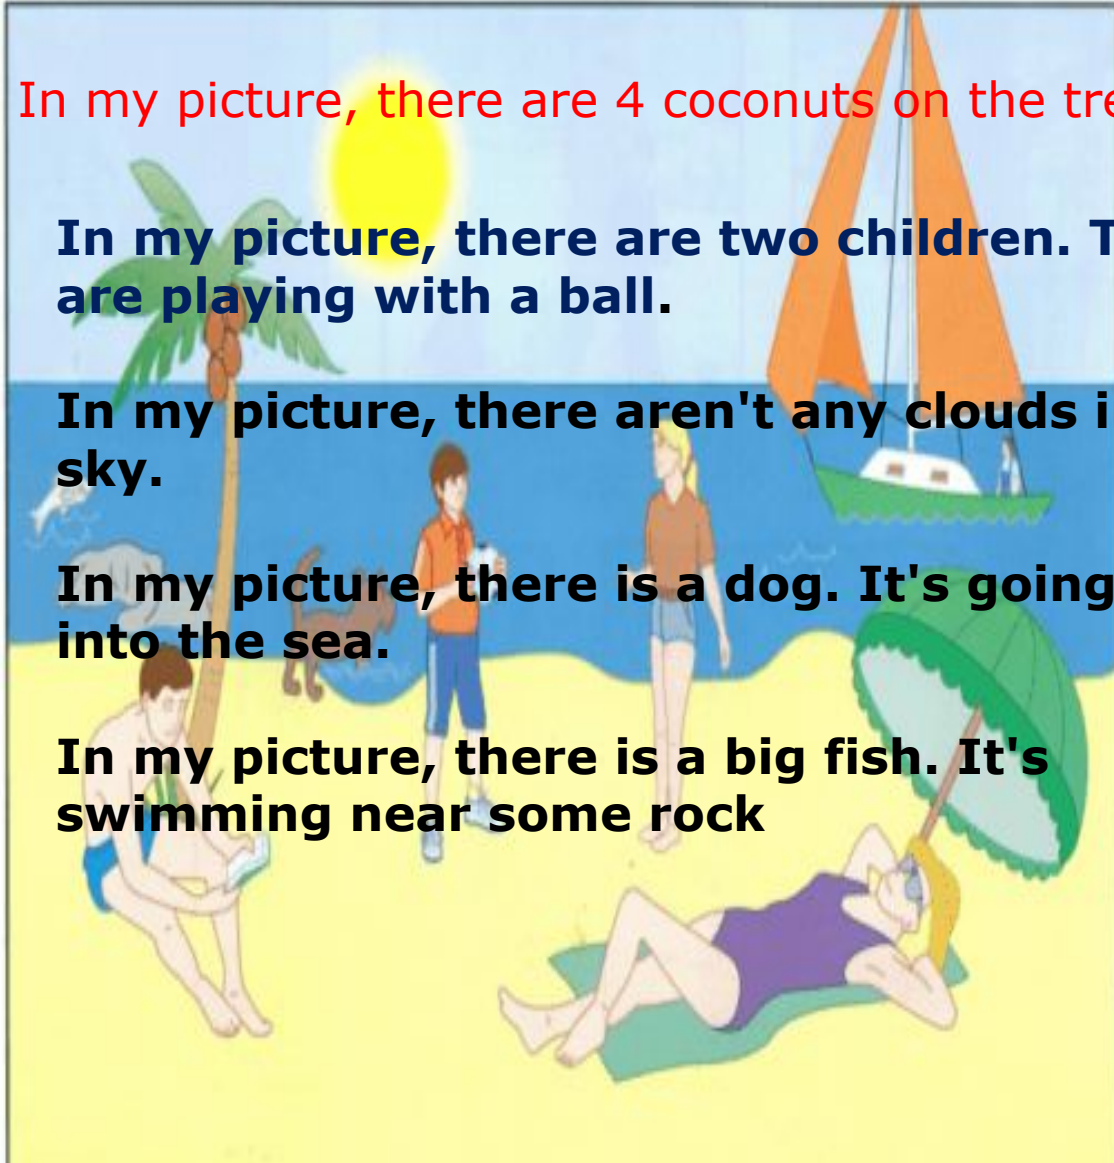

In my picture, there are 4 coconuts on the tree.

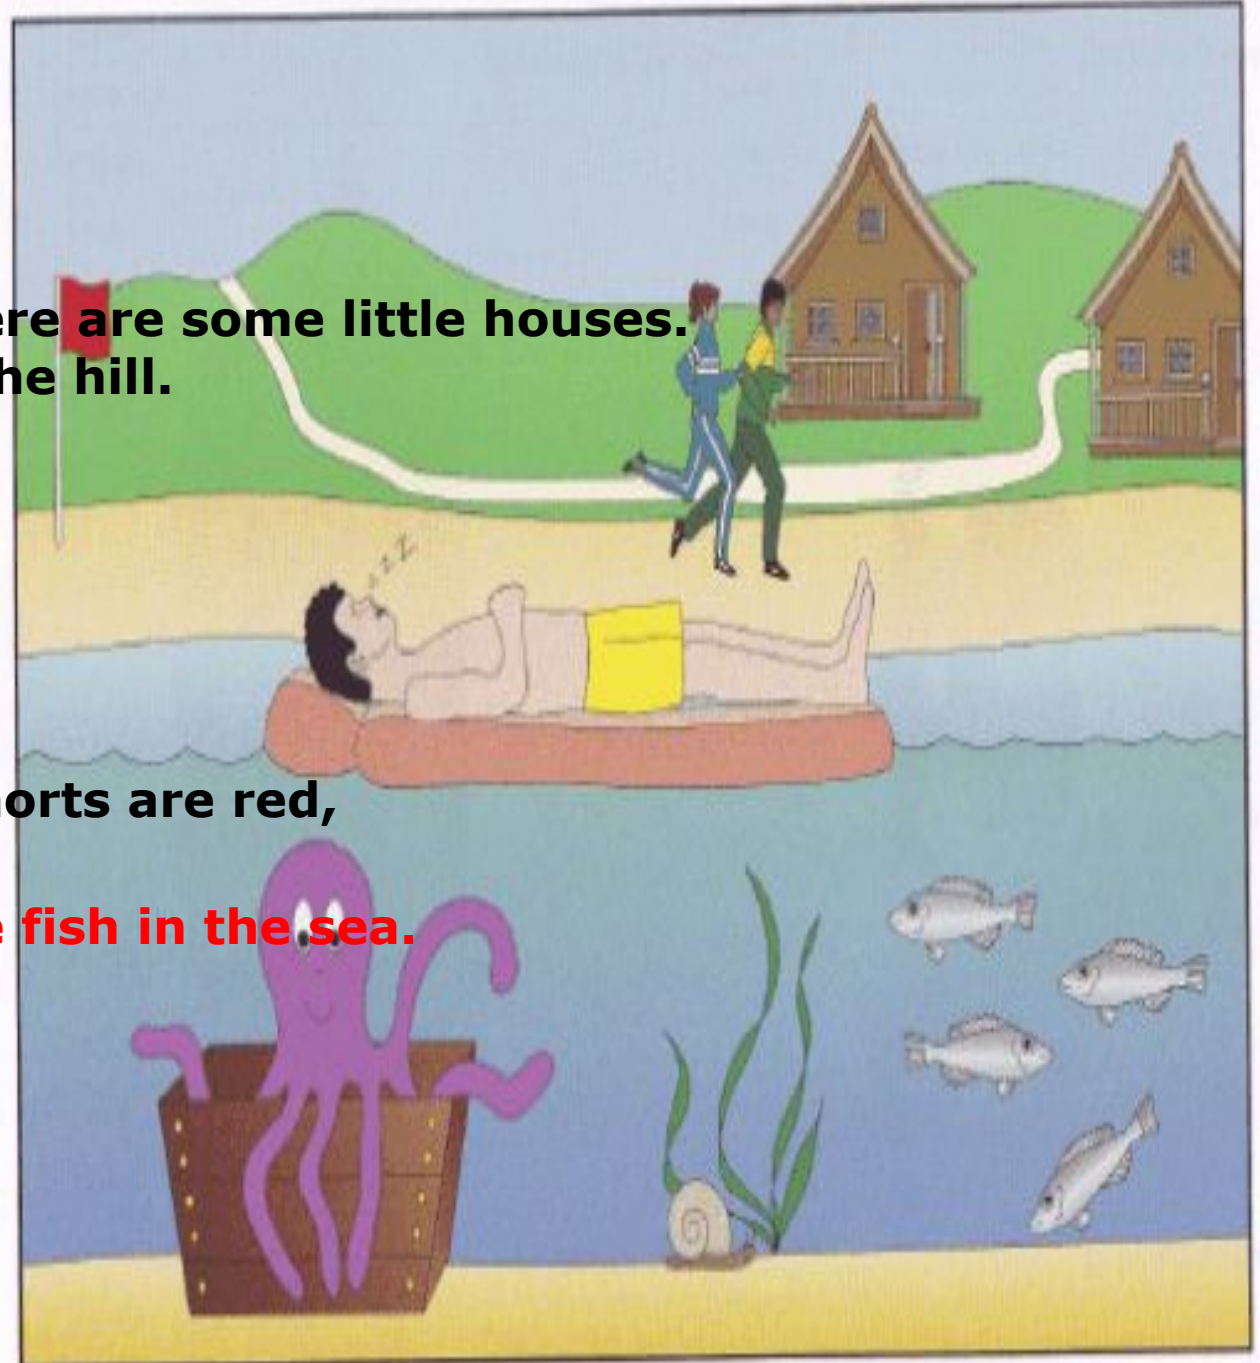

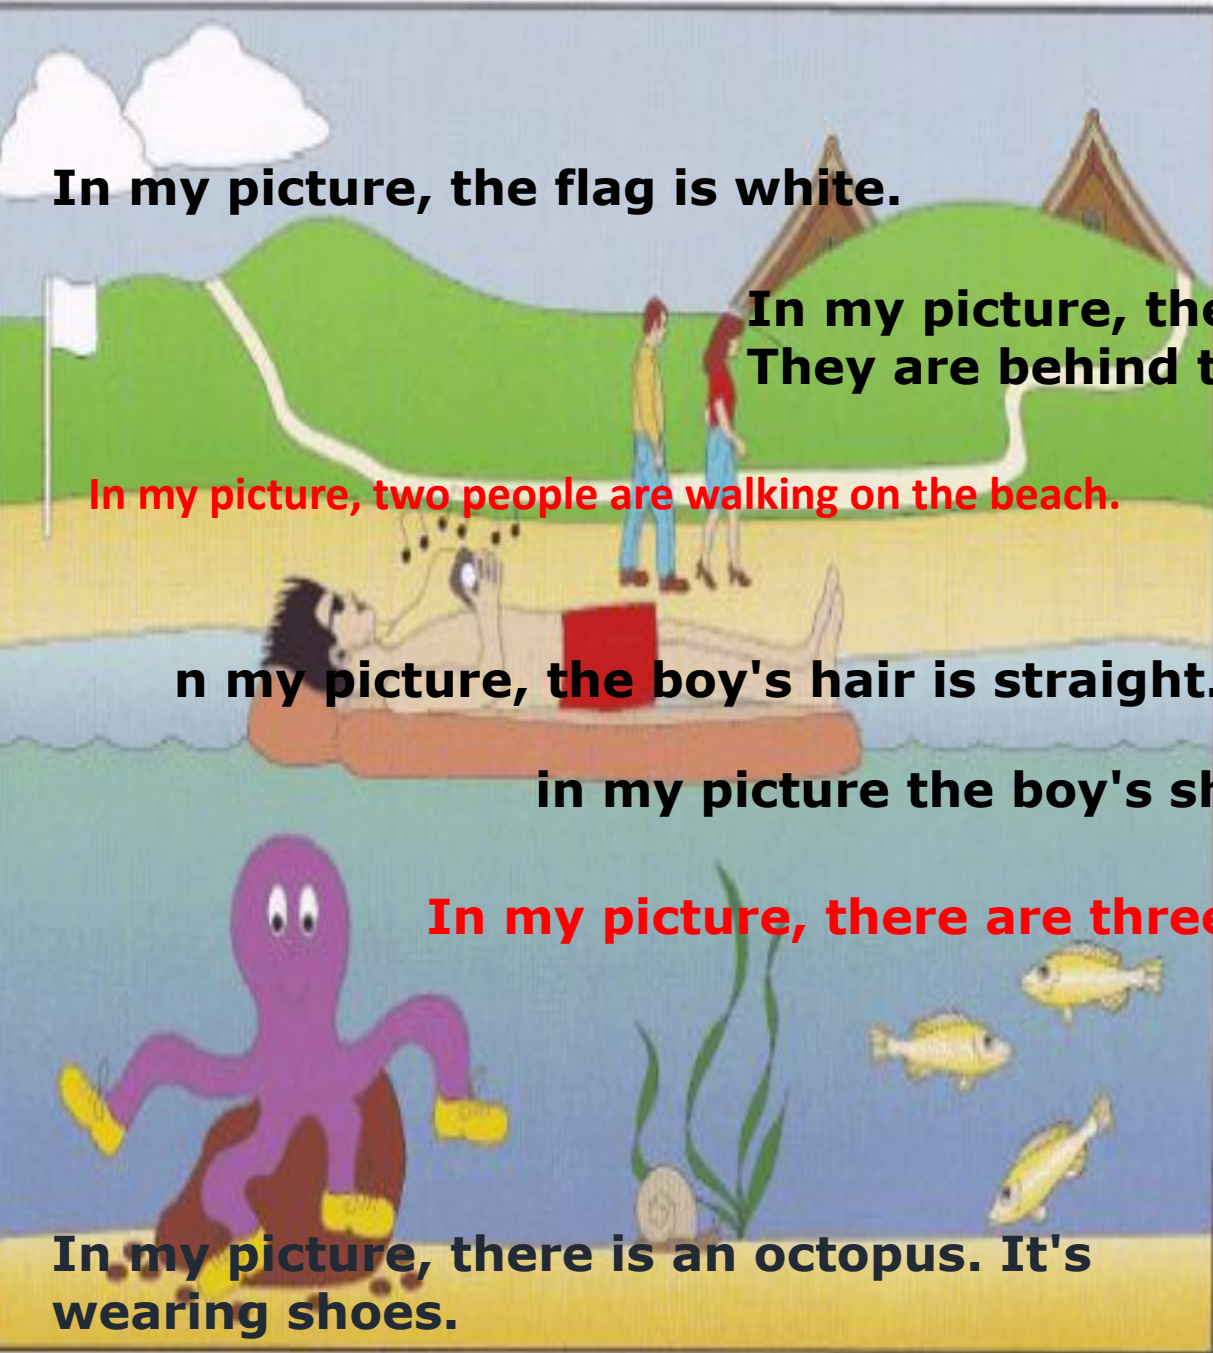

In my picture, there are two children. They are playing with a ball.

In my picture, there aren't any clouds in the sky.

In my picture, there is a dog. It's going into the sea.

In my picture, there is a big fish. It's swimming near some rock

For example, the planets in my picture are red, but in your picture they are yellow. OK?

Find the difference

Examiner's copy

Find the difference

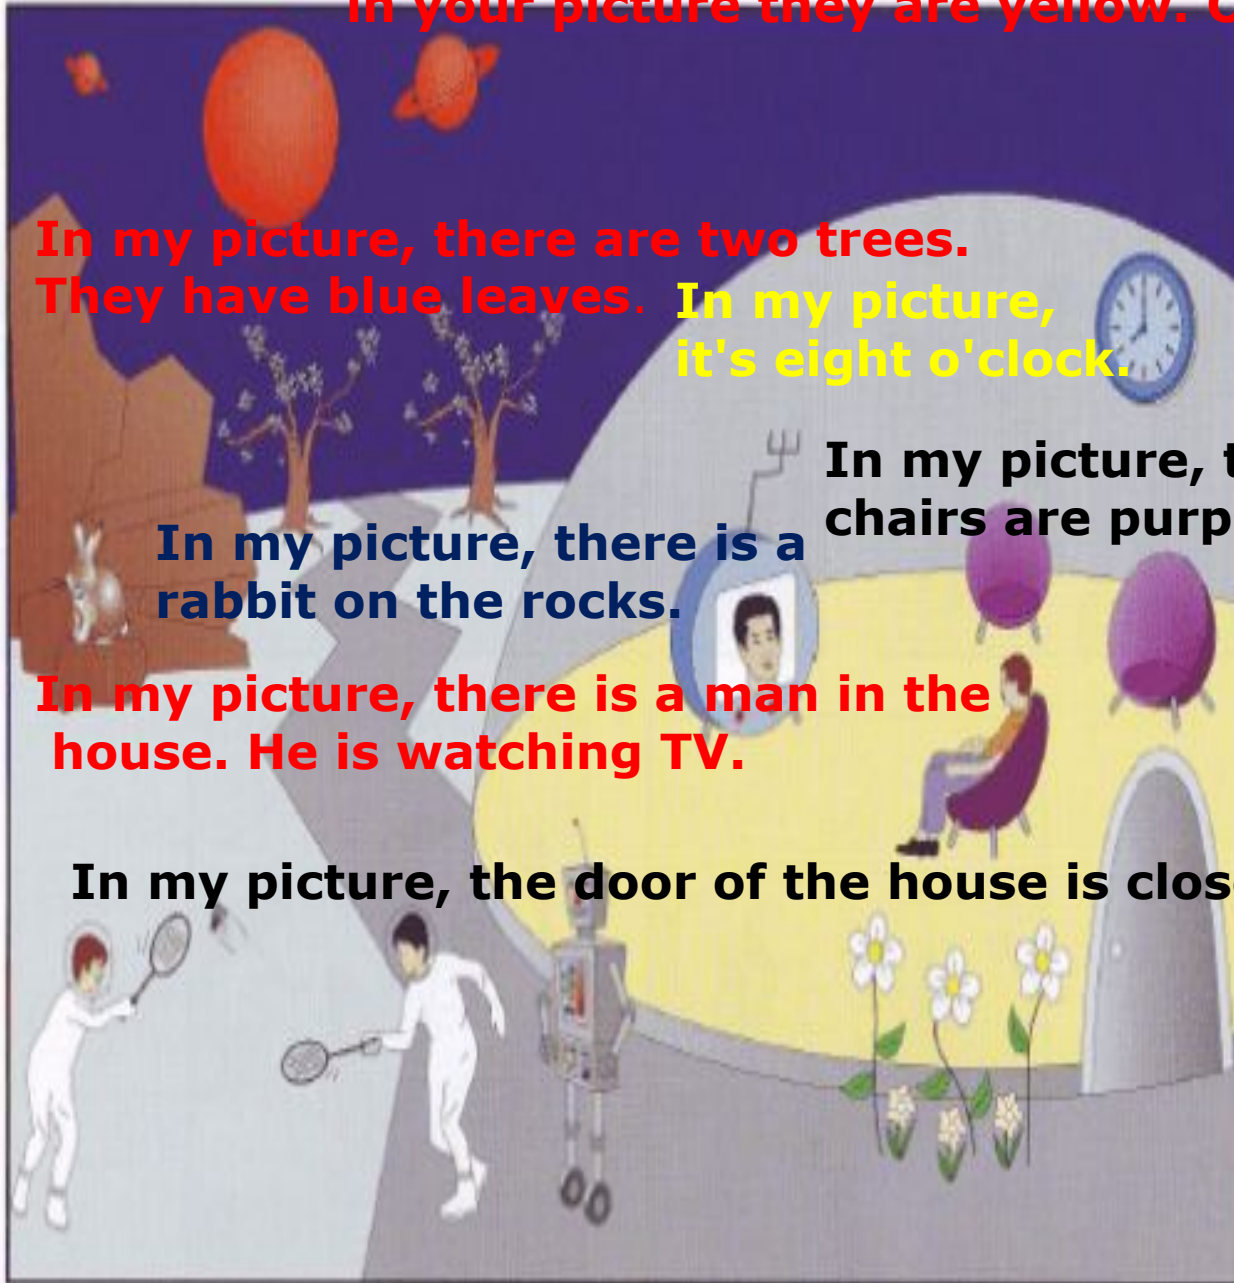

Candidate's copy

In my picture, there are two trees. They have blue leaves. In my picture, it's eight o'clock.

In my picture, there is a rabbit on the rocks. In my picture, the chairs are purple.

In my picture, there is a man in the house. He is watching TV.

In my picture, the door of the house is closed.

the car in my picture is red, but in your picture it's blue. OK?

Find the difference

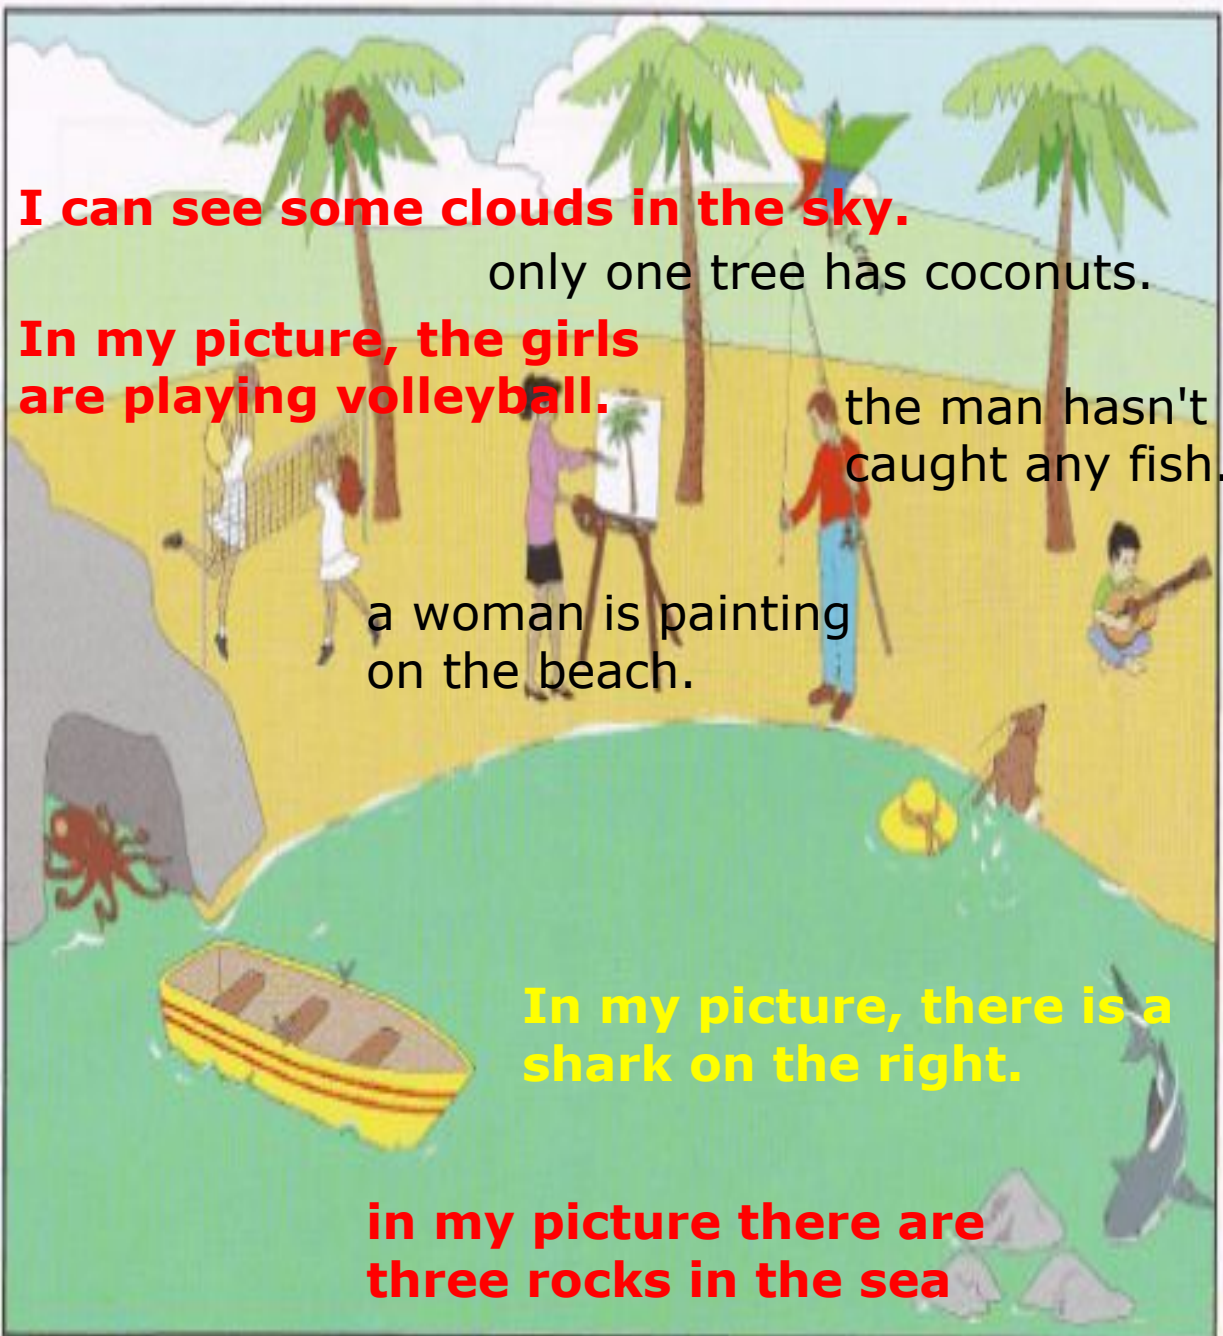

Examiner's copy

Find the difference

Candidate's copy

Find the difference

Examiner's copy

Find the difference

Candidate's copy

you can see the moon.

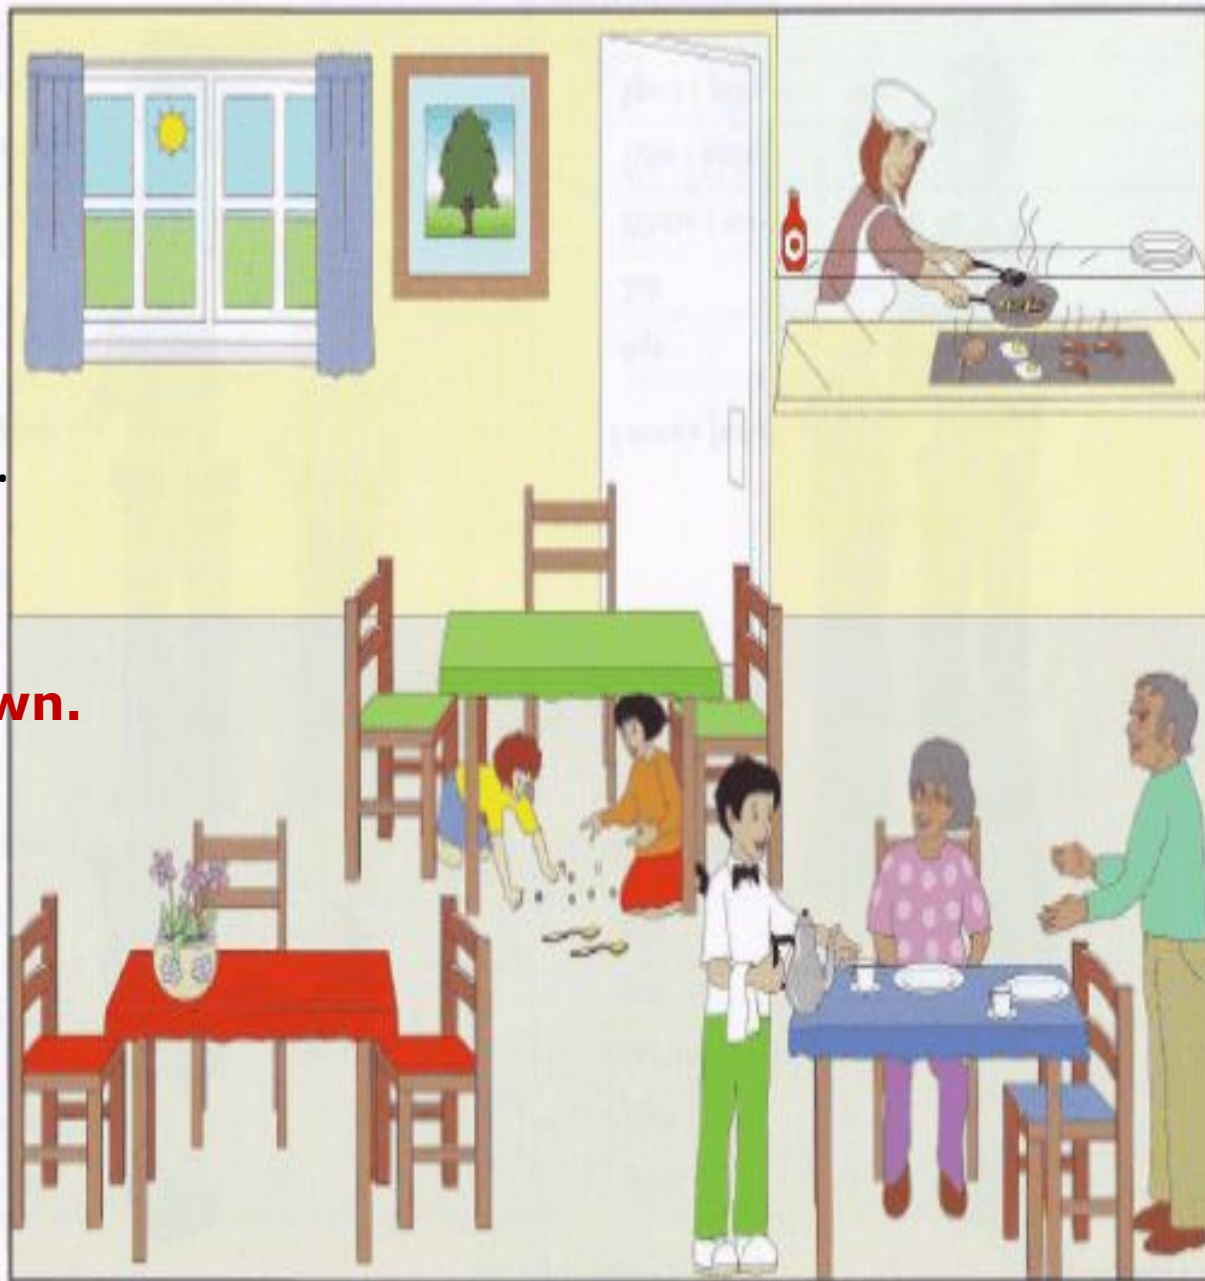

the window is open.

you can see some forks and knives on the green table.

in my picture
the spoons are blue,

the girls have got long hair.

the old man
is sitting down.

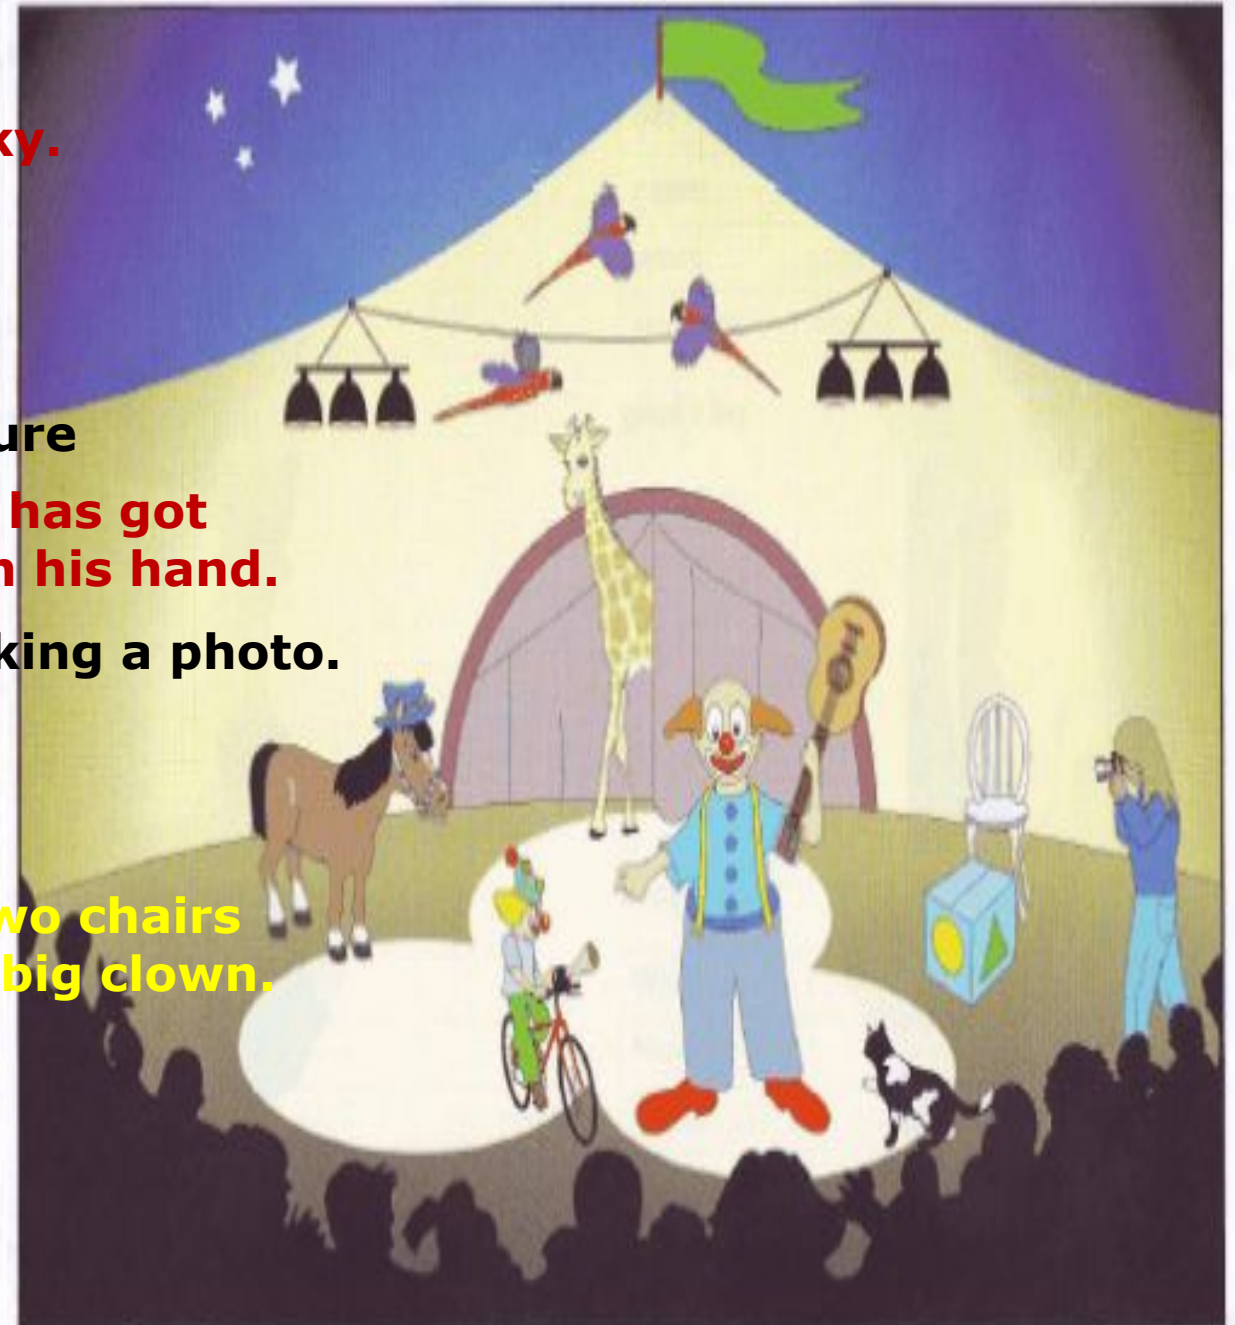

you can see the moon in the sky.

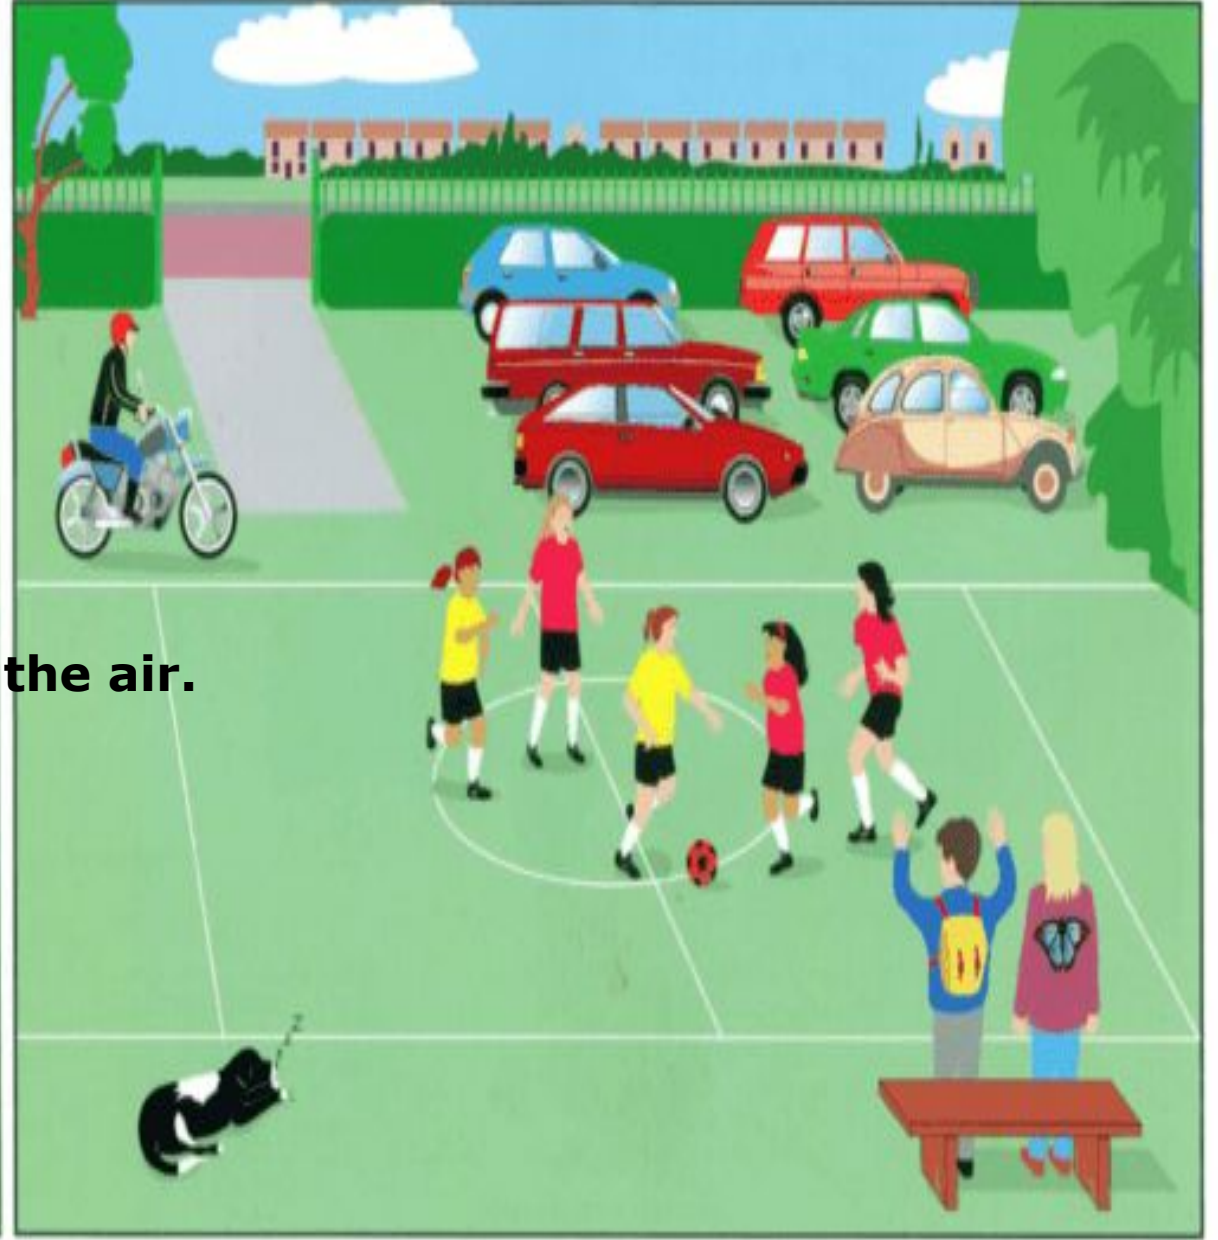

there are two parrots in my picture

the big clown has got the horse's hat is red. an umbrella in his hand.
a man is taking a photo.

the box is on the left.

there are two chairs
behind the big clown.

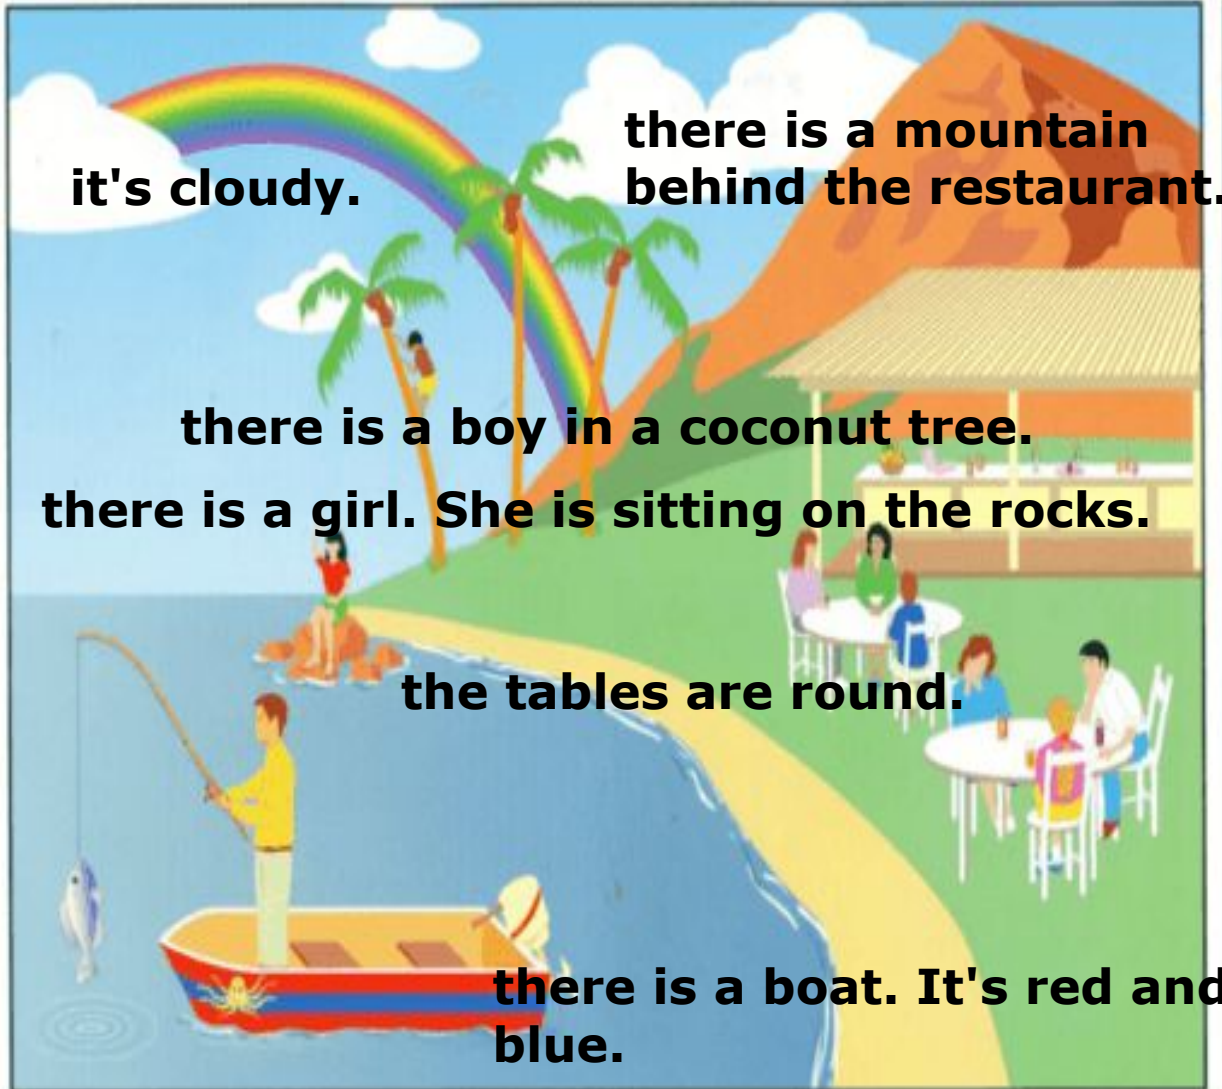

Now here are two pictures. My picture is nearly the same as yours, but some things are different. For example, in my picture there are six people in a restaurant, but in your picture there are four. OK?

I am going to say something about my picture. You tell me how your picture is different.

Find the difference

Examiner's copy

Find the difference

Candidate's copy

Now here are two pictures. My picture is nearly the same as yours, but some things are different. For example, the birds in my picture are grey, but in your picture they are green. OK?

Find the difference

Examiner's copy

Find the difference

Candidate's copy

1

Find the Difference

Teacher's Copy

115

116

1

Find the Difference

Student's Copy

Find the Differences / Student's copy

Find the Differences / Teacher's copy