

True or false?

False.

It is as big as a car.

The blue whale has a heart _____ is as big as a large van.

True.

Mice

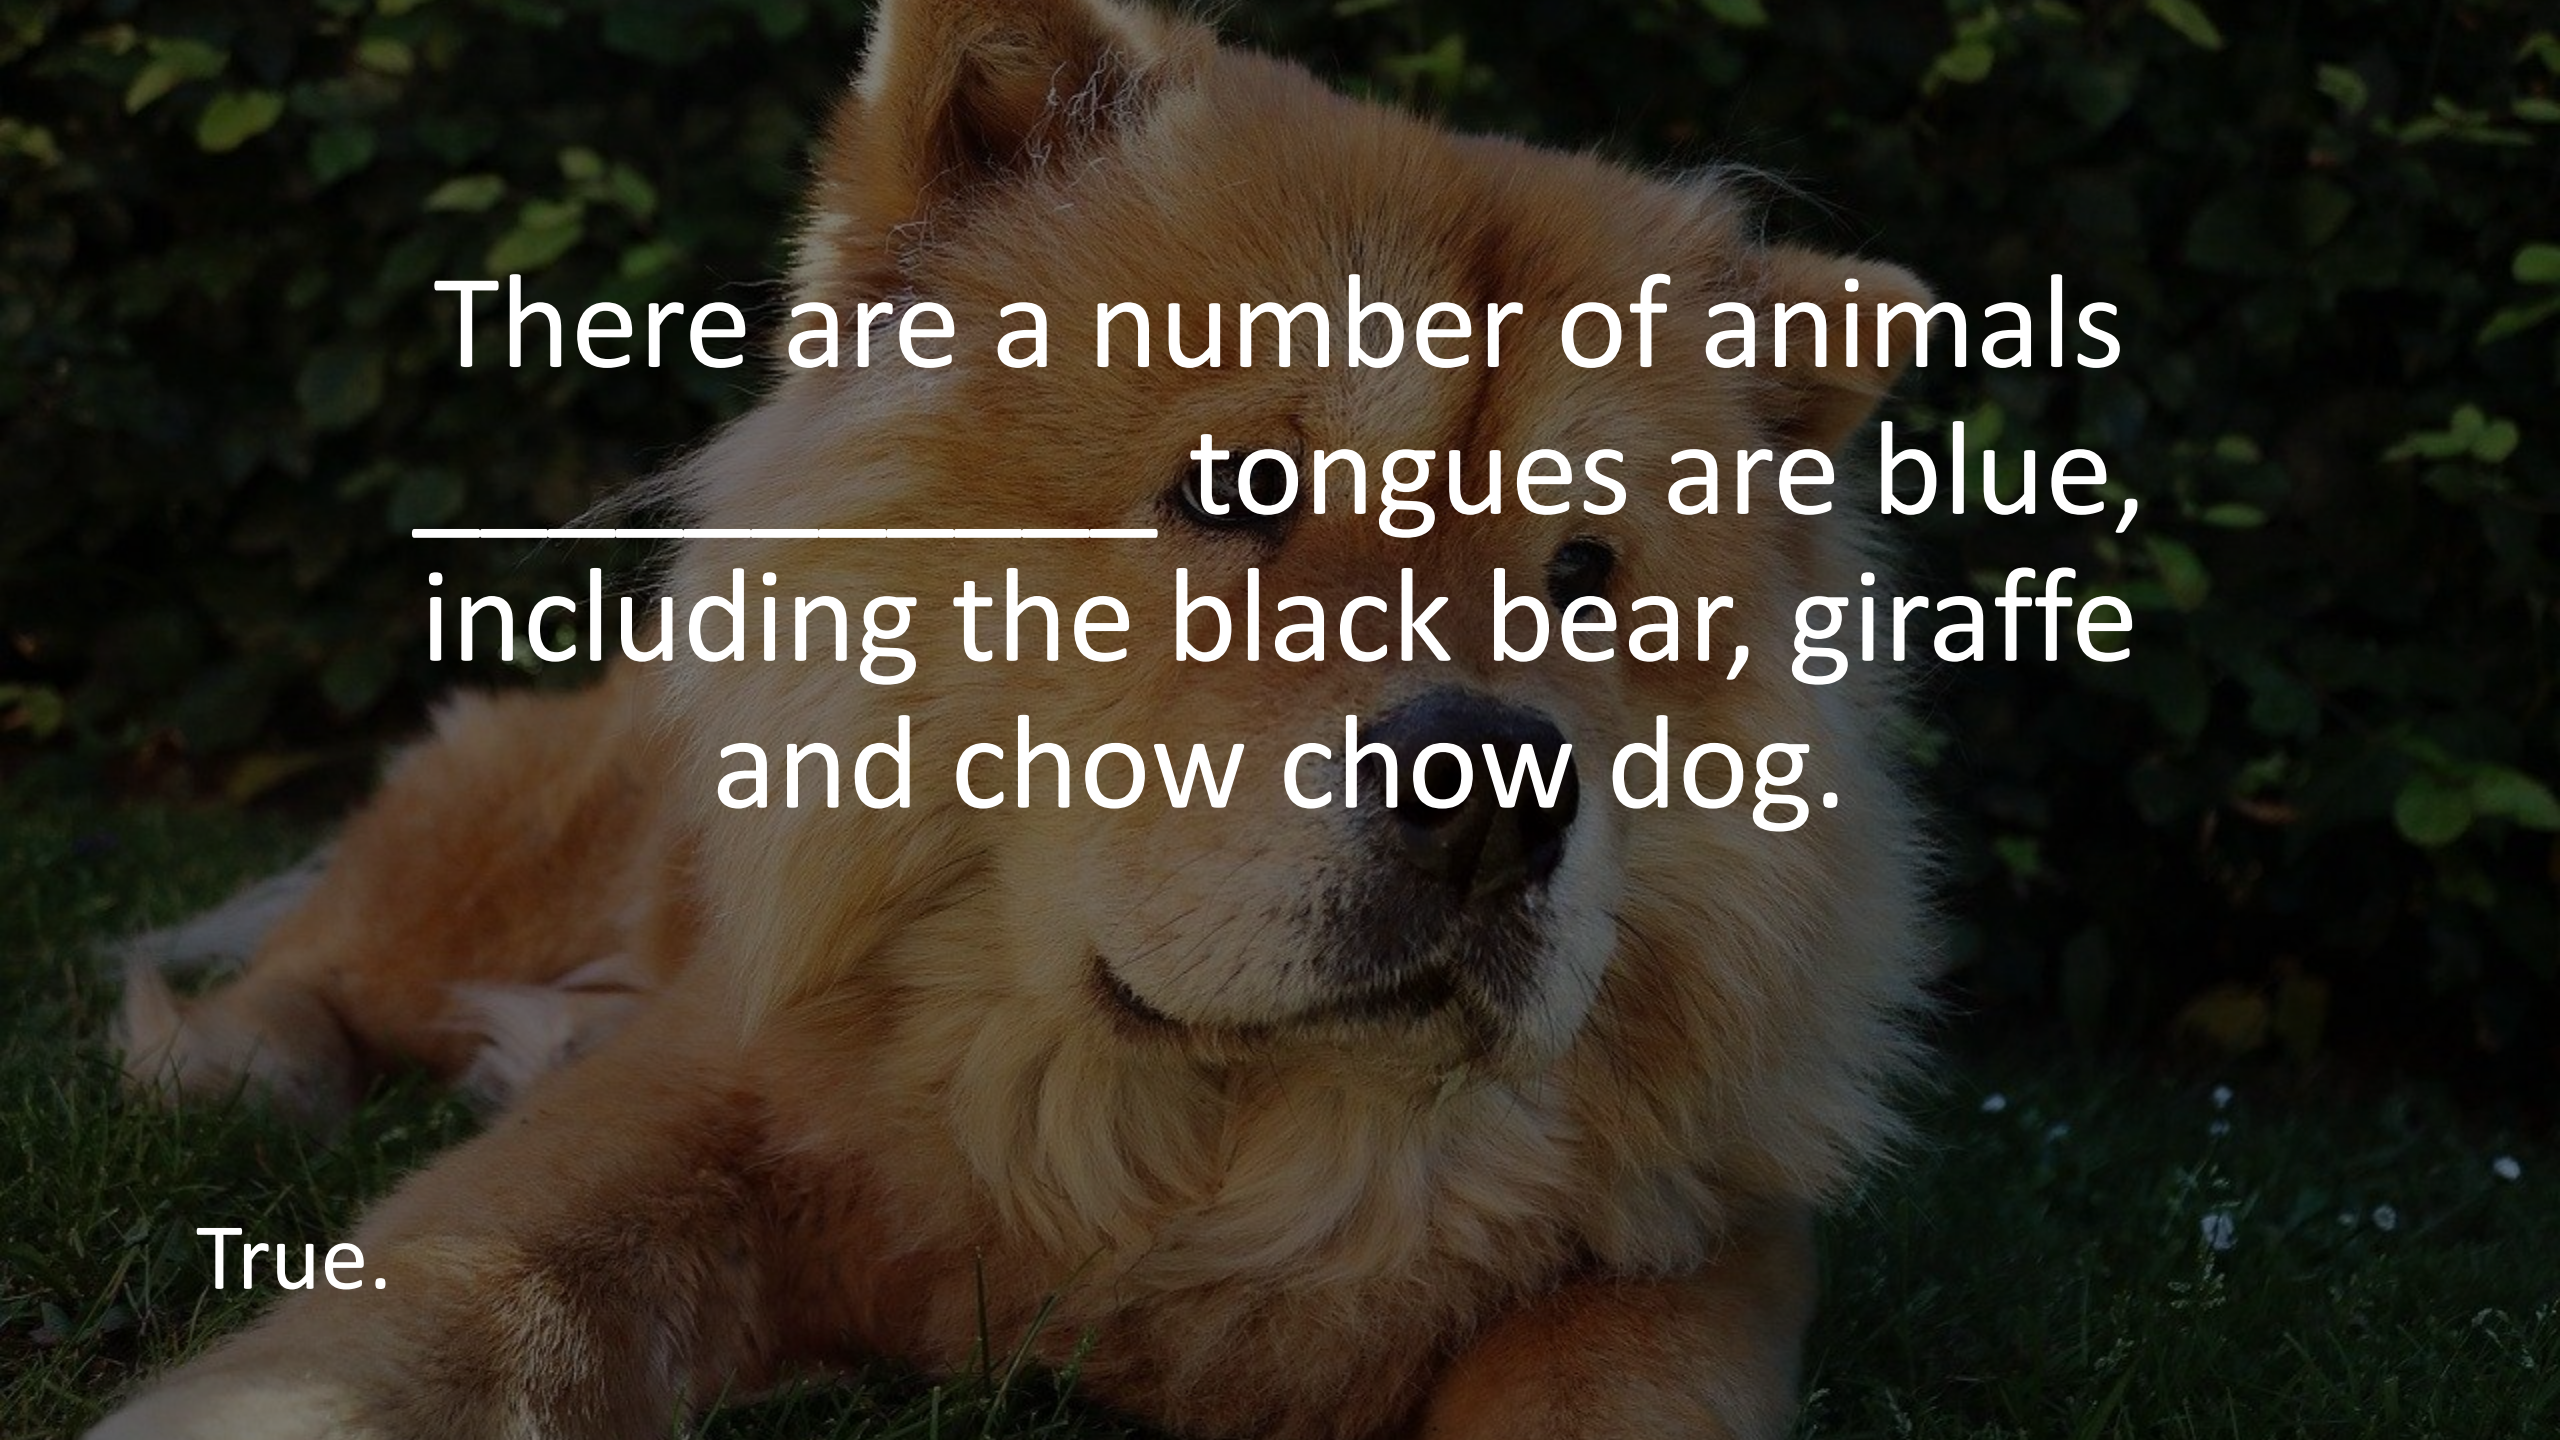

---

are kept in laboratories will run up to 3.5 km a night on their wheels.

True.

Polar bears _____ live in the Arctic are all left-handed and have black skin.

A close-up photograph of a fluffy, light brown dog, possibly a Chow Chow, lying on a grassy surface. The dog's face is the central focus, with its dark eyes and black nose visible. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting foliage. Overlaid on the image is white text. The text reads: "There are a number of animals _____ tongues are blue, including the black bear, giraffe and chow chow dog."

There are a number of animals _____ tongues are blue, including the black bear, giraffe and chow chow dog.

True.

China and the north of Vietnam are the only places in the world _____ you can find giant pandas in the wild.

---

False. They live only in China.

Butterflies _____ feet contain tiny sensors taste their food by standing on it.

True.

A cockroach _____ has lost its head can live up to nine days.

True.

There are up to five million people _____ are bitten by snakes every year.

True.

A large shark, likely a Great White, is shown breaching the surface of the ocean. The shark's head and upper body are visible, with its mouth open, revealing its teeth and pinkish interior. The water is a deep green color, and there is a significant splash of white water around the shark's head. The shark's skin is dark grey on top and lighter on the bottom, with visible gills and a dorsal fin.

The annual number of worldwide shark bites is 10 times less than the number of people _____ are bitten by other people in New York.

True.

Millions of trees are accidentally planted by squirrels _____ bury nuts and then forget the place _____ they hid them.

True.