

Halloween: How did we fall in love with pumpkin?

Based on video by BBC:

https://youtu.be/e_WMcAfAR-4

Watch the video again and complete the sentences below

- 1.It's nearly Halloween and by now Brits have probably either carved out a pumpkin and wondered what to do with the bits they've scraped out or had a pumpkin flavored _____.
- 2.The tradition of carving pumpkins comes from the _____.
- 3.In the Middle Ages people used to carve other root vegetables such as a _____ to make a lantern.
- 4._____ migration took these Halloween traditions to North America.
- 5.According to Professor Cindy Ott pumpkin represents the idea of a small family _____
- 6.Popularity of pumpkins gives a huge _____ for farmers' business
- 7.In England people who do office jobs still like to think of themselves as farmers at _____

Watch the video again and complete the sentences with the words from the table. There are a couple of extra words, you don't have to use.

heart, British, turnip, British isles, coffee, lantern, farm, benefit, vegetable, Middle ages, Irish, beetroot

- 1.It's nearly Halloween and by now Brits have probably either carved out a pumpkin and wondered what to do with the bits they've scraped out or had a pumpkin flavored _____.
- 2.The tradition of carving pumpkins comes from the _____.
- 3.In the Middle Ages people used to carve other root vegetables such as a _____ to make a lantern.
- 4._____ migration took these Halloween traditions to North America.
- 5.According to Professor Cindy Ott pumpkin represents the idea of a small family _____
- 6.Popularity of pumpkins gives a huge _____ for farmers' business.
- 7.In England people who do office jobs still like to think of themselves as farmers at _____ .

Watch the video again and complete the sentences with the words from the table. There are a couple of extra words, you don't have to use.

1. It's nearly Halloween and by now Brits have probably either carved out a pumpkin and wondered what to do with the bits they've scraped out or had a pumpkin flavored coffee/drink.
2. The tradition of carving pumpkins comes from the Middle Ages/ British Isles.
3. In the Middle Ages people used to carve other root vegetables such as a turnip/beetroot to make a lantern.
4. Irish/Scottish migration took these Halloween traditions to North America.
5. According to Professor Cindy Ott pumpkin represents the idea of a small family farm/business.
6. Popularity of pumpkins gives a huge benefit/boost for farmers' business.
7. In England people who do office jobs still like to think of themselves as farmers at heart/soul.

Понравились задания?

Переходите по ссылке:

<https://teacherswhocare.ru/halloween>

чтобы приобрести сет уроков «Halloween без хлопот» целиком

