Baiterek

The symbol of the capital – Baiterek. The monument embodies the idea of the Kazakh people related to the structure of the universe. According to the legend, Baiterek is the tree of life, the destination of the sacred bird, Samruk. Monument Baiterek was opened in 2002 and has become a landmark in history of Kazakhstan, a new stage in the lives of its people. The height of the building is 97 meters. The metal structure of the tower weighs over 1,000 tons and rests on 500 piles. The tower's top is adorned with a huge ball of glass with the diameter of 22 meters, weighing 300 tons. The total height is 105 meters.
