

Kenya is a very interesting country.

Kenya's Lake Victoria is one of Africa's Great Lakes

Kenya is home to many different tribes, or groups of people.

Today we will tell you about Massai tribe. Which situated on the Kenya and lives there many, many years.

They make their houses by a wooden frame, and smear it by mud. Usually the houses are made by women. Inside you can find the animals skin for sleeping and in the middle they burn a fire.

The tradition massais people usually wear the clothes by animals skin, but the modern people prefer dresses by red cloth, and its very popular wear different jewelrly on hands or necks.

The massai always eat the food wich connect with their cattle. It can be milk and of course meat.