

Hello! My name is Tom.
This is my typical day!

I wake up and I clean my teeth.

I sometimes take a shower. Mmm! Fantastic!

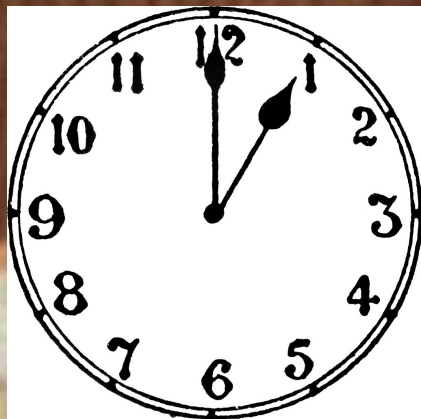

I have breakfast. Hmm...
This cactus isn't very fresh.

I often do sports. I really like football.

I drink milk and have lunch.

I do my homework. I really hate it.

I sleep. I really like to sleep in the afternoon.
Zzz...

I often play computer games.

A black cat with striking blue eyes is peeking over a table, looking intently at a tall stack of pancakes. The cat's face is partially visible on the left side of the frame. The stack of pancakes is on the right, showing many layers of golden-brown pancakes with some darker, possibly syrup-soaked, layers. A speech bubble originates from the cat's head area.

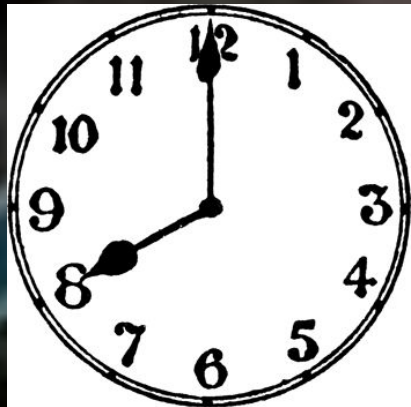

I have dinner! Yummy!

I usually play with my dog.
He enjoys it.

I clean my teeth again.

I go to bed.
