

Read the theory box.

Compound adjectives are made up of two or more words, usually with hyphens between them.

There are many patterns for forming them.

Adjective/noun + noun

(eight-legged)

Adjective/adverb + past participle

(well-behaved)

Adjective/adverb/noun + present participle

(nice-looking)

Noun + adjective

(year-long)

Adjective + noun

(deep-sea)

Complete the sentences.

1 The boys watched a(n).....documentary on the mysterious Loch Ness Monster.

2 What a.....picture!

3 This art school is so popular there is a(n).....waiting list to get in.

4 Picasso is a(n).....painter.

Complete the sentences.

5 This book shop has a lot of.....books that are hard to find.

6 My parents don't let my brother watch the..... films on television.

7 Ms Maple dresses in a(n).....way and looks much older than she really is.

Phrasal verbs: come

- 1 Come across- случайно натолкнуться
- 2 Come up with- предлагать (идею)
- 3 Come down with- заболеть чем-либо
- 4 Come over- овладевать (о чувстве)
- 5 Come out- выступать (на публике)

Phrasal verbs: come

- 1 Come across- meet or find by chance
- 2 Come up with- to suggest or think of an idea or plan
- 3 Come down with- to catch or show signs of an illness
- 4 Come over- to be influenced suddenly and unexpectedly by a strange feeling
- 5 Come out- become available to the public

Learn the words with dependent prepositions.

1 hear of smth

2 hear from sb

3 be part of

4 succeed in

5 think about

6 in search of

7 know from

8 nervous about

Words often confused.

Scene is a view
or a picture of a place.

Sighting is an occasion
when you see something or someone.

Sight is something that is in someone's view.

Fantasy is a pleasant but
unlikely situation
that you enjoy
thinking about.

Imagination is the ability to form mental pictures of
people or things.

Illusion is an idea that is
not true,
or something
that is not what
it seems to be.

Witness is a person who sees
an event happening,
especially a crime
or an accident.

Spectator is a person who
watches an activity,
especially a sports
event.

Investigator is a person who carries
out a formal
inquiry or investigation.

Same

exactly like another or each other.

Similar

looking or being almost the same, although not exactly.

Alike

similar
to each other.

❖ My sister and I have the same tastes in music.

❖ He used similar tactics to win the last election.

❖ The children all look very alike.