A vibrant illustration featuring a central dark green chalkboard with a brown wooden frame. The text "Множественное ЧИСЛО" is written on the board in white, sans-serif font. Surrounding the chalkboard are ten diverse cartoon children of various ethnicities and ages, all smiling. They are holding various school supplies: pencils in blue, green, yellow, red, and purple; a red paperclip; a red crayon; and a brown autumn leaf. The background is a dark blue gradient with a subtle pattern of faint, light-colored numbers and mathematical symbols like plus, minus, multiplication, and division signs.
