

PAST CONTINUOUS

Practice

Complete the sentences.

- Which hotel _____ (you/stay) in when you lost your passport?

Complete the sentences.

- Which hotel were you staying in when you lost your passport?

Complete the sentences.

- I _____ (live) in London when I met them.

Complete the sentences.

- I was living in London when I met them.

Complete the sentences.

- It _____ (snow) when I left home this morning.

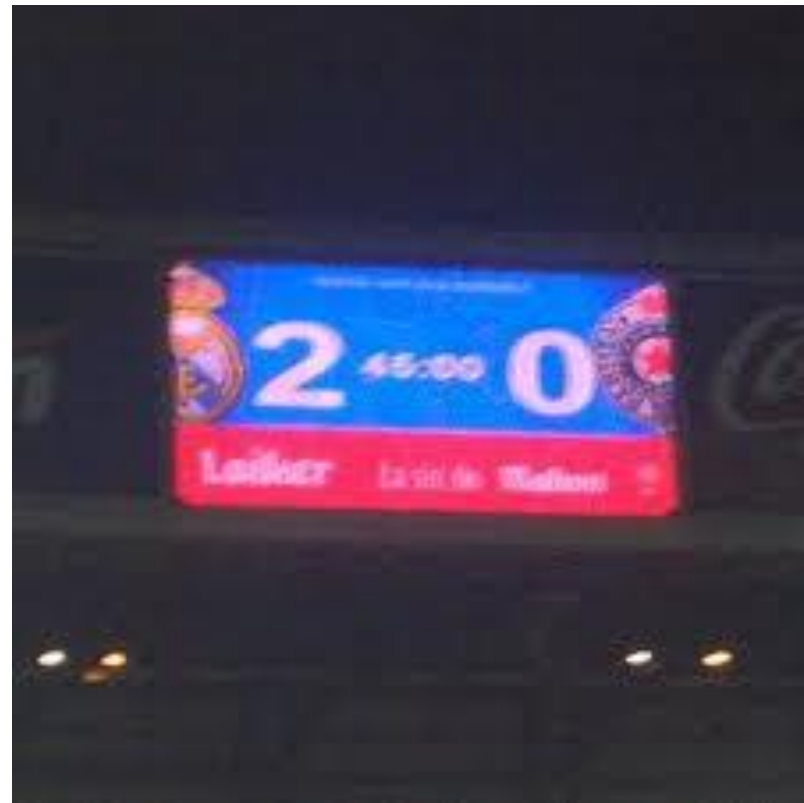

Complete the sentences.

- It was snowing when I left home this morning.

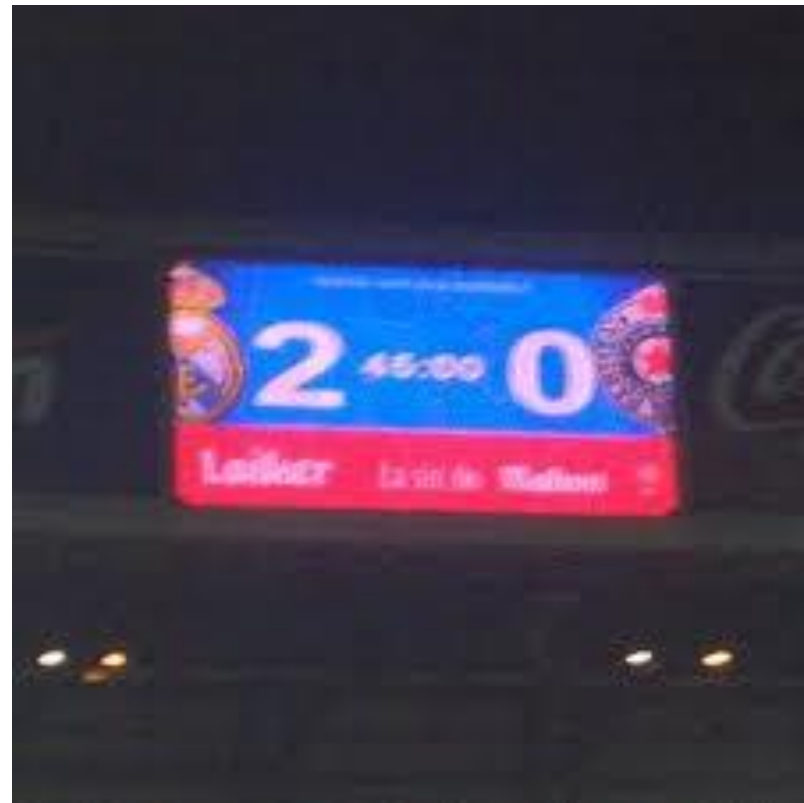

Complete the sentences.

- At the end of the first half of the game, they _____ (win).

Complete the sentences.

- At the end of the first half of the game, they were winning.

Complete the sentences.

- It was a sunny afternoon and people _____ (sit) on the grass in the park. Then it suddenly started to rain.

Complete the sentences.

- It was a sunny afternoon and people were sitting on the grass in the park. Then it suddenly started to rain.

Complete the sentences.

- He _____ (talk) on the phone when I arrived.

Complete the sentences.

- He was talking on the phone when I arrived.

Complete the sentences.

- I tried to explain my problem to him, but he _____ (not/listen).

Complete the sentences.

- I tried to explain my problem to him, but he wasn't listening.

Complete the sentences.

- What _____ (you/do) at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon?

Complete the sentences.

- What were you doing at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon?

Complete the sentences.

- A lot of people _____ (wait) for the 7.30 bus last night.

Complete the sentences.

- A lot of people was waiting for the 7.30 bus last night.

Complete the sentences.

- I looked out of the window, and I saw that it _____ (not/rain) any more.

Complete the sentences.

- I looked out of the window, and I saw that it wasn't raining any more.

Complete the sentences.

- Fortunately, I _____ (not/drive) too fast when the child walked into the road in front of me.

Complete the sentences.

- Fortunately, I was not driving too fast when the child walked into the road in front of me.

Complete the sentences.

- I nearly had an accident this morning. A car _____ (come) towards me, but I moved quickly out of the way.

Complete the sentences.

- I nearly had an accident this morning. A car was coming towards me, but I moved quickly out of the way.

END