

WELCOME TO LONDON !

A TOUR OF ONE OF EUROPE'S
LIVELIEST CITIES

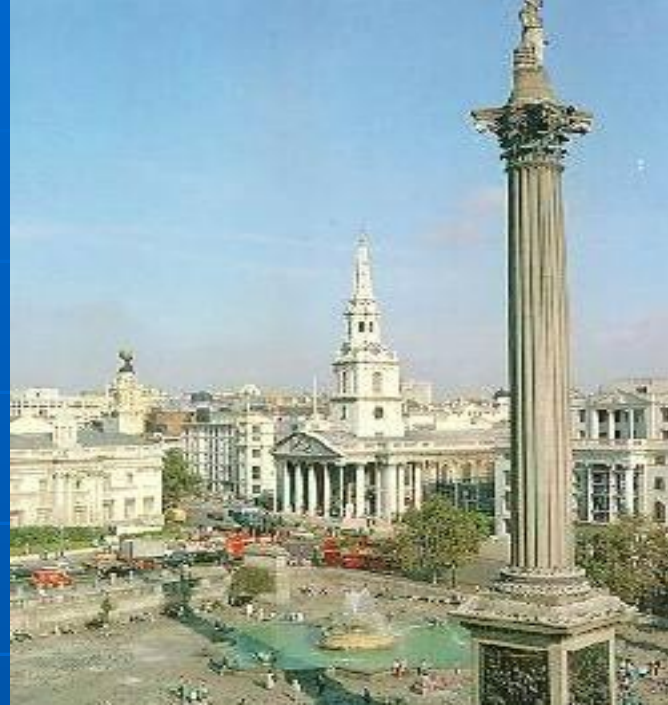

The Houses of Parliament:
the seat of the Government of the United Kingdom

...and Big Ben (on the right):
was named after Benjamin Hall
who was in charge of its construction

The London Eye:
opened in March 2000

Trafalgar Square and the statue of Admiral Nelson who won the Battle of Trafalgar against Napoleon Bonaparte

Royal Horseguards:
they are not allowed to smile !!
How serious they are !!! They are soldiers of the British Army and
protect the Royalty

The Mall... On
the way to Buckingham
Palace, the Royal Residence,
past Saint
James's Park

Piccadilly Circus, with its world-famous wall
ads

10, Downing Street: the residence of the British Prime Minister

A double-decker

A
popular
symbol

...

The Tower of London:
was built as a fortress
by William the Conqueror in the 11th
century, then used to be a prison, and is now a touristic place where you can see the Crown
Jewels

BEEFEATERS: they are the guards and guides of the Tower of London. Up to the 1800s, they used to be paid part of their salary with beef, hence their

Two famous London museums

The British Museum,
famous for its vast
collections of world
art (ancient Egypt, Greece, China, ...)

The National Gallery:
houses one of the
greatest collections of European paintings

Westminster Abbey: the traditional place of Coronation and burial site of British monarchs

Saint Paul's Cathedral:
designed by architect Sir Christopher Wren

Tower Bridge: it was originally the only bridge crossing over the Thames, and is a bascule bridge

