

FAIRY TALES

Alice and the Frog

Kate Kataeva

Far away there lived a small girl Alice.

Alice liked to travel. One Monday
the girl woke up early, she wanted to see the dawn.

She stopped walking, because dawn began to break.

After that Alice started dreaming under the tree. She dreamed about droughty Africa.

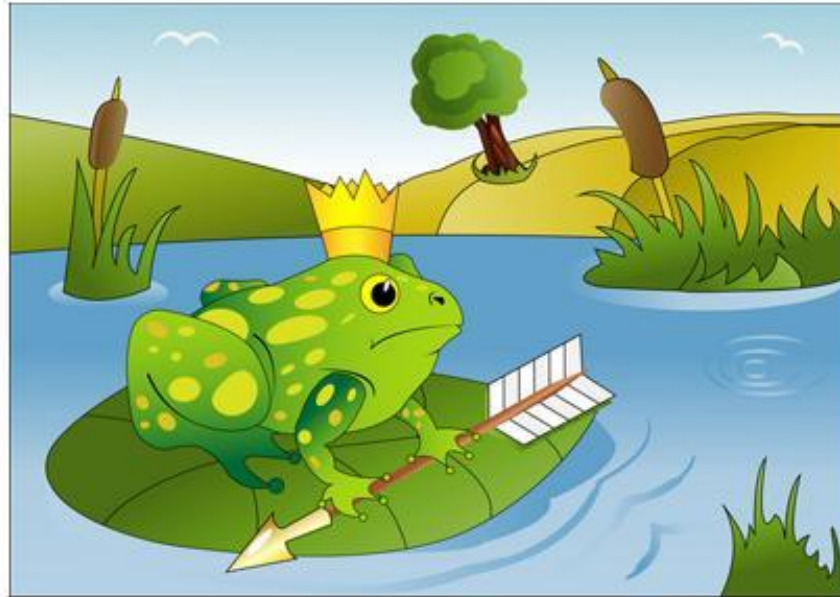

The girl thought that Africans didn't have much water and they suffered from dust storms. She wanted to help people and animals in Africa.

«If we had such storms
our vane would be broken» - Alice thought.

But suddenly a frog
frightened the girl.
She tried to catch the frog.

Alice thought that it was a bewitched prince, but the frog jumped into the bog.

The end

Alice and the Frog

Text by Kate Kataeva
Pictures from the Internet
Designed by Alesandra

2017