

First Conditional Sentences

1st conditional

expresses true or very probable situation in the present or future.

If + Present Simple, Future Simple

Imperative

can/may/might/

must/should

+ bare infinitive

If it is sunny, we will go to the beach.

If you need help, ask me.

If you do your homework, you can go out.

If you go hiking, you must wear hiking boots.

2nd conditional

expresses untrue or improbable situations in the present or future.

If + Past Simple, would/could/

might

+ bare infinitive

If I had more free time, I would take up gardening.

If I won a lot of money in a lottery, I might give some to charity.

I would feel disappointed if Dave didn't invite me to his birthday party.

NEXT

invited

didn't invite

didn't invited

What will Jane do if she fails the university entrance examination?

NEXT

will Jane do

Jane will do

does Jane do

If my team loses
the match, we will fall to the second division.

NEXT

lost

don't lose

loses

If Helen's parents

NEXT

knew Spanish, they could help her with her project.

known

knew

knows

James would buy his wife a BMW if he were richer.

NEXT

will buy

would bought

would buy

If you are cold,
you can put on warm socks
and a bathrobe.

NEXT

are

be

will be

If I knew Linda's address,
I would send her a valentine card.

NEXT

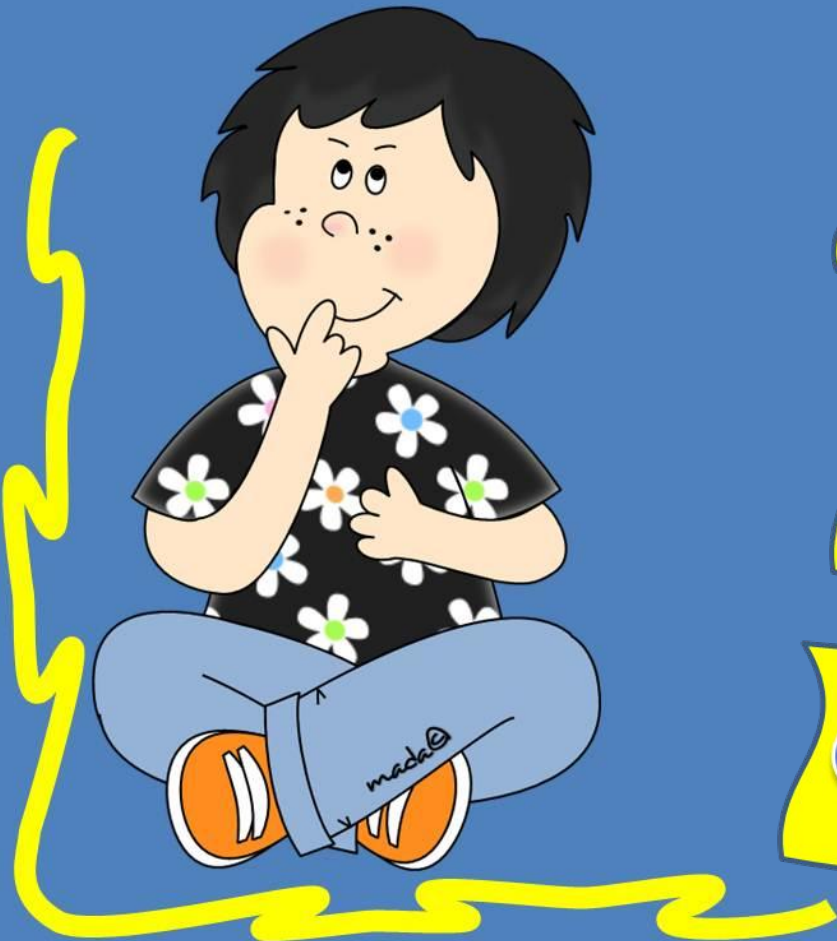

will send

would send

would sent

If Mary doesn't feel better tomorrow, she should see a doctor.

doesn't Feel

don't Feel

doesn't Feels

NEXT

What would you do if you got lost in a forest at night?

get

got

didn't got