MY SPORT PASSION

A TRADITIONAL SPORT THAT HAS FEATURED
IN EVERY EDITION OF THE MODERN
OLYMPICS SINCE THEY STARTED IN 1896,
RHYTHMIC GYMNASTICS REMAINS ONE OF
THE MOST EXCITING EVENTS THAT THE GAMES HAVE TO OFFER.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL LADY

LYASAN UTIASHEVA

FOR ME LYASAN IS INCREDIBLE ATHLETE
IN THIS SPORT

Lyasan Albertovna Utiasheva
was born 28th of June in 1985.
She was a former individual rhythmic gymnast.

HER ROOTS

Laysan Utiasheva was born to a Bashkir mother named Zulfi Utyasheva, who worked as a librarian, and a father of mixed Russian, Polish, and Volga Tatar descent named Albert Utyashev, who was a historian.

SHE WAS KNOWN FOR HER EXTREME FLEXIBILITY

IN THE PAST PICTURE LYASAN WAS 11.

In Volgograd Utiasheva's first coach was Alla Yanina, who suddenly uncovered a little 4years old girl's talent.

Lyasan fell in love with this sport, and even then she decided to be a champion.

SPORT
BREAKTHROUGH

Utiasheva's success came in 2001 when she placed third at the Russian Championships. She then competed at the 2001 World Cup in Berlin, Germany and 2001 World Games in Akita, Japan and won gold and silvers medals in all-around and the individual apparatus finals in clubs, ball, rope and hoop.

She was a member of the Russian team that won gold at the 2001 World Championships in Madrid.

In September 2002, Utiasheva hurt her foot on a bad landing while training in Samara. At a specialist clinic in Berlin, magnetic resonance tomography showed that the navicular bone of both her feet had numerous fractures.

She underwent surgery and returned to the sport briefly in 2004 but, unable to perform her jumps, she retired from competition and completed her career in 2006.

PRESENT LIFE

And now Lyasan is a Russian TV show host, socialite, and ambassador of the 2018 FIFA World Cup, also she is a great mother of two children. She married Russian actor and comedian Pavel Volya, with whom she has a son, Robert, born in Miami, Florida. She gave birth to a daughter, Sofiya, in Summer 2015.
