Spotlight 10
Short messages

LETTERS

WRITTEN MESSAGES NOTE S

SM S

EMAILS

SHORT NOTES/MESSAGES

- 1. In short messages we don't usually write:
- Greetings and polite expression Hi, I hope you're well
- Unimportant information
 - 2. We often leave out:
 - Personal pronouns (I, you, my) I hope you can come.
 - Auxiliary verbs do, have, are at the start of the sentences.

Do you want ..?

• Articles (a, the)

The play starts...

3. We often use

the Imperative in short notes.

Phone if you can't come.

Short forms

I'll, won't, don't

Abbreviations

P.S, etc, e.g

4. We must write the important details of the message like the place and the time of the meeting.

- 1. I've got four tickets for tomorrow
- evening! 2. Do you want to
- §. The play starts at
- 4: Why don't you meet me in the café at seven?
- 5. I'm inviting Rachel and Mark
- too. 6. I hope you can
- 7. Could you phone me if you can't make it?

Abbreviations with numbers

- some1 someone
- . be4 before
- 2day today
- 4u for you
- gr8 great
- str8 straight
- . w8 wait
- . 2u to you
- . u2 you too

ASAP – as soon as possible

PLS, PLZ – Please

THX – Thanks

B2W – Back to work

?4U — Question for you

IDK - I don't know

CUL8R – See you later

LY – Love you

XXX - Kisses

CU 2morrow

See you tomorrow

Hope u ad gd day

Hope you had a good day

Il try 2 call u b4

I'll try to call you before

Av a gd day

Have a good day

Cnt u w8 4 me?

Can't you wait for me?

Ok 4 2morrow

Okay for tomorrow

Il be there @ 5

I'll be there at 5

CUL8R

See you later

Luv U/LY

Love you