

- I wanted to become an engineer but _____ I changed my mind
- There's nothing better _____ a cup of hot tea when you're cold.

- Meet Anna, my _____ old friend
- The adult male _____ is called a stag.

- Every person is entitled to _____ trial
- The bus _____ increases every year

- I still don't know _____ they are planning to come
- If the _____ is fine, we'll go out tonight

- Leave me alone and let me read my newspaper in _____!
- This _____ of music was composed by a very young man.
- We are organizing a second-hand book _____ in our school.
- The ship will _____ from Hamburg on Monday
- The company must have an Internet _____
- The _____ of the sea made me feel relaxed
- That thing is made of stainless _____
- His plan was to _____ a car and drive to Mexico

Phrasals

Cut down on smth

Cut in

Cut off

Cut out

Cut up

Prepositions

Travel BY car, bus, plane, etc...

BUT:

I can't sleep ON a plane

Food will be served ON a bus

We talked IN a taxi on our way home

AS versus LIKE

- Jane looks like a famous actress today!
- Laura has worked as a librarian for three years.

- Do it like this
- Can you sing like John?
- Write it like him

- Do it as you should do
- Sing as he sings
- Write as you are told

+ as you know, as usual, as we expected, as he said, such as

EMPHASIZING without VERY

- Jane is much better
- He looks much older
- I paid much more than I should
- There were many more people
 - There was far less water
 - We've got far more books

VERY

- At that VERY moment
- Those were his VERY words
 - At the VERY end
 - That VERY girl