CAE Essay Assessment Criteria

CONTENT

Are all the points of the task covered?

Has the author mentioned which aspect is the most important?

Are there any sidetracking or digression?

Are there any omissions?

COMMUNICATIVE ACHIEVEMENT

Is the register right and supported throughout the whole text?

Are the ideas in the text clear and don't need being reread?

Is there a style of the author? Do you feel the author's voice?

ORGANISATION

Are there clear paragraphs, introduction, conclusion?

Is the text coherent? Are there enough coherent devices?

Is there a rotation of sentences of different length?

LANGUAGE

Is there less common and sophisticated lexis? Highlight this in green.

Are there collocations, phrasal verbs and idioms? Highlight in blue.

Is there any complicated grammar (cleft sentences, inversion, subordinate clauses, gerund clauses, double comparison)? Highlight in italics.

Are there any language mistakes? Highlight in red.

Is it difficult to understand the sentences with the mistakes? Do they impede communication?

Time Management

- Time your writing
- 35 mins - writing
- 10 mins - editing

General Tips

If you don't like your writing, don't expect examiners to like it.

Write at advanced level, but don't overuse sophisticated lexis.

If you want to use a word, an idiom, a phrasal verb - make sure you know the meaning and the register. Make sure it collocates with the environment.

Try to meet the word limit. Fewer words means you have not developed the topic enough. More words means you are repeating ideas.

Each paragraph should start with a topic sentence, which then should be developed in supporting sentences.

When you have finished, read your writing and check whether it sounds like a flow. If you read it without stumbling, it's good. Otherwise, eliminate all stumbling points.
