

Bayer HealthCare
Pharmaceuticals

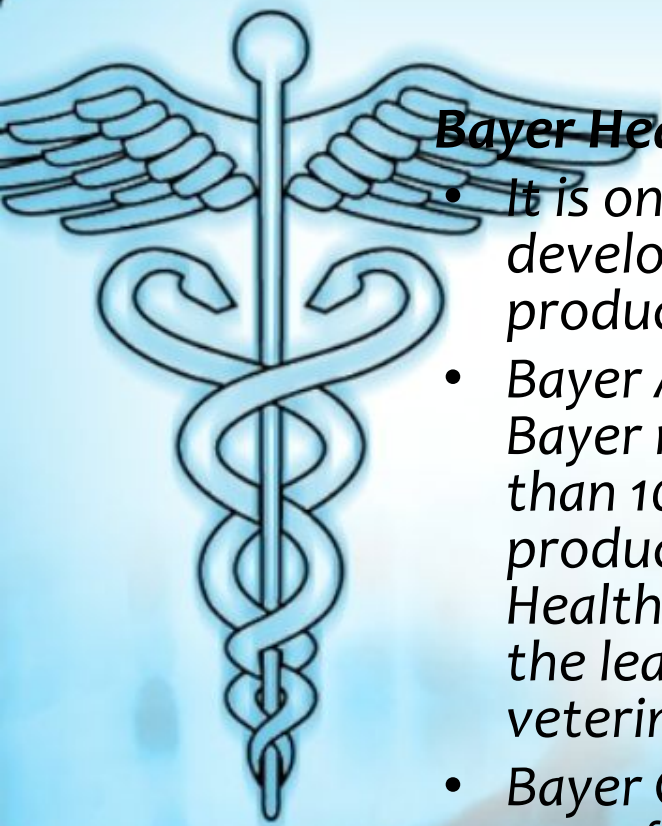

Bayer - an international group with in the fields of health care, agriculture and high-tech materials. As an innovative company, Bayer sets the trends in the development of science-intensive areas.

- The company products and services intended to benefit people and improve the quality of life. Business group is based on innovation, economic growth and high profitability. Bayer - a socially responsible company, which adheres to the principles of sustainable and ethical business practices. In fiscal year 2014 the number of employees of the Group amounted to 118,900 people, the volume of sales - 42.2 billion euros. Capital expenditures amounted to EUR 2.5 billion, expenditure on research and development - EUR 5.5 billion.

Bayer HealthCare

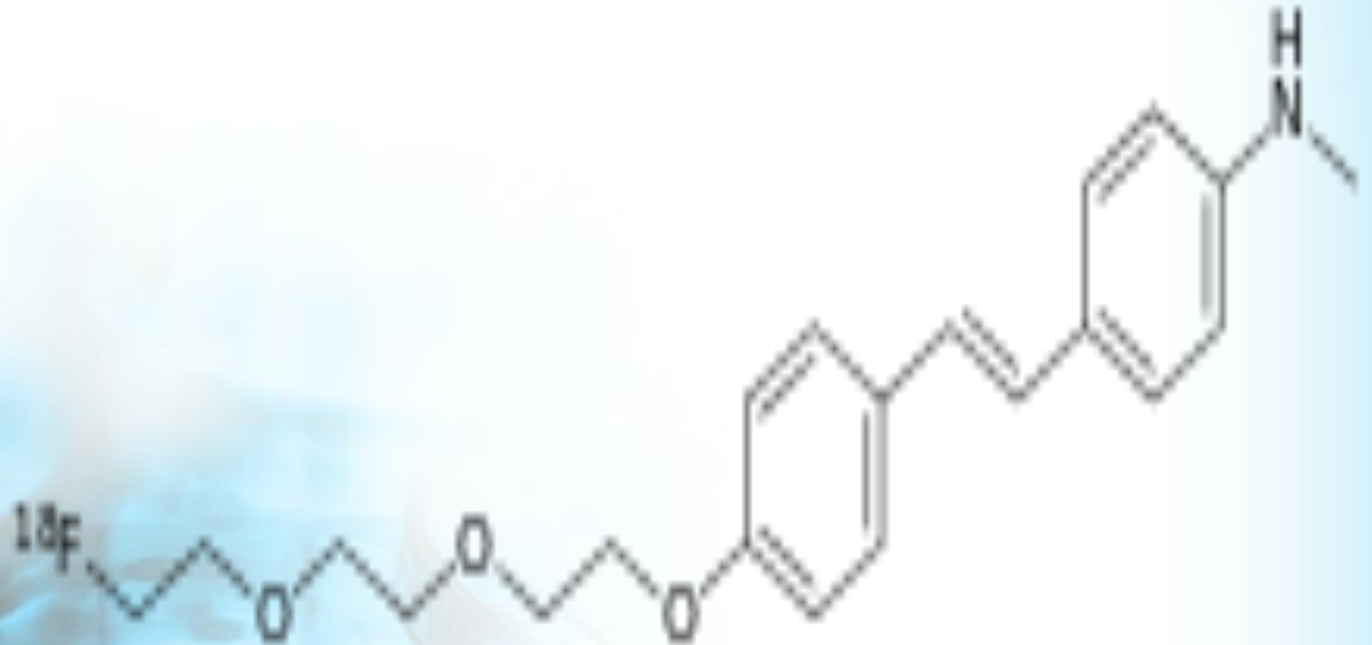

- It is one of the leading innovative companies in the development and production of medicines and health products.
- Bayer Animal Health. Health Protection Unit animals
Bayer manufactures and markets on a global scale more than 100 kinds of different veterinary drugs and care products designed for farm and domestic animals. Health Protection Unit animals (Animal Health) is one of the leading and most successful global suppliers of veterinary proprietary products.
- Bayer Consumer Care. Business group of OTC drugs is one of the leading companies producing drugs without prescription - which is more than 170 brands.
- Bayer Medical Care. The division integrates the company for the production of blood glucose monitoring systems and devices for administration of diagnostic imaging agents.

Bayer Pharmaceuticals

The product portfolio includes drugs unit who are appointed by both physicians and medical specialists in areas such as cardiology, women's health, oncology.

Bayer Healthcare Pharmaceuticals consists of two units - the general and special medicine.

Main service functions are carried out by three service companies

Bayer Business Services - International Centre for the Bayer Group for IT services.

Bayer Technology Services - provides the technological development of Bayer by providing consulting and engineering services. Currenta provides services for the chemical industry, including the supply of maintenance, waste management, infrastructure management, safety and security, analytics and vocational training.

Thank you for attention!!!