

Gennady Mikhailovich Garbuk was born in 1934. He is the Peoples Artist of the Byelorussian SSR. His father was a gypsy. From the first grade he attended a dance club. Even the he was fond of theater and cinema.

In his youth he dreamed of becoming a pop singer, but in their village there were no music schools. In high school he got a job in a district cinematography to write posters for films.

Graduated from the Belarusian Theater and Art Institute. In 1958 he worked at the Y. Kupala Theater.

He played in such famous Soviet films as "Russian People", "Mother-in-law", "Mysterious Heir". He also popular in the film "Brest Fortress". Awarded the USSR State Prize for the role of Anna's father in the film "People in the Swamp".

Gennady Gorbuk died on February 7, 2018 in Minsk at the age of 84.

