OTTO ANNO DNI MCXXXII OCTOBIS

A black and white photograph of a grand Gothic cathedral, likely St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, with a horse-drawn carriage in the foreground. The cathedral features intricate Gothic architecture with multiple levels of arches, windows, and a large rose window. In the foreground, a horse-drawn carriage is being pulled across a street. A vintage bus is visible on the left, and a crowd of people is gathered around the carriage. The text "Спасибо за внимание!" is overlaid in the center of the image.
