

The background is a vibrant, anime-style illustration. It depicts a chaotic scene with intense red and orange flames or energy swirling around. In the center, a character with long white hair, red eyes, and a dark purple gothic-style dress with a large bow and ruffles is holding a dark purple umbrella. To her left, a character with short blonde hair and a mischievous grin is visible. To her right, another character with long blonde hair is partially seen. The overall atmosphere is dramatic and intense.
