

The background features a vibrant anime-style illustration. In the center, a character with long white hair and red eyes, wearing a dark purple gothic-style dress with a large pink bow and a matching parasol, stands prominently. To her left, a character with short blonde hair and purple eyes is visible. To her right, a character with long blonde hair is partially seen. The scene is filled with large, golden, mechanical-looking structures and a dark, fiery atmosphere with red and orange flames.
