

007<sup>5</sup>

by Herber

VERB HAVE GOT

PLAY

Our teacher has got a new car.
He bought it last week.

have

haven't

has

hasn't

GOOD JOB!

I have got some crayons in my pencil case.
They are green, red, yellow, and blue.

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

Have you got my pencil? No, I haven't .

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

We have got some pets at home.
The dog is my favourite.

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

My aunt has got two children.
Their names are Peter and Mary.

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

Paul hasn't got the keys.
I've got them.

have

haven't

has

hasn't

GOOD JOB!

My grandad hasn't got a cane.
He doesn't need it.

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

We haven't got any diamond ring.
They are too expensive.

have

haven't

has

hasn't

GOOD JOB!

They haven't got any radiator at home.
They live in Jamaica.

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

Sarah is a beautiful girl.

She has got long fair hair and green eyes.

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

They have got some beautiful books.
They love reading.

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

She hasn't got the money.
It's in the safe.

GOOD JOB!

have

haven't

has

hasn't

