1. Football

Two teams of 11 players who try to maneuver the ball into the other team's goal without using their hands. The team that scores more goals wins. Football is the world's most popular ball game in numbers of participants and spectators.

2.Cricket

Cricket is a bats and ball game played by two teams of eleven players on a field centered on a 22-yard (20-meter) field with a wicket at each end, each of which consists of two bows balanced by three stumps.
When ten batsmen have lose, the serve ends and the teams switch roles.

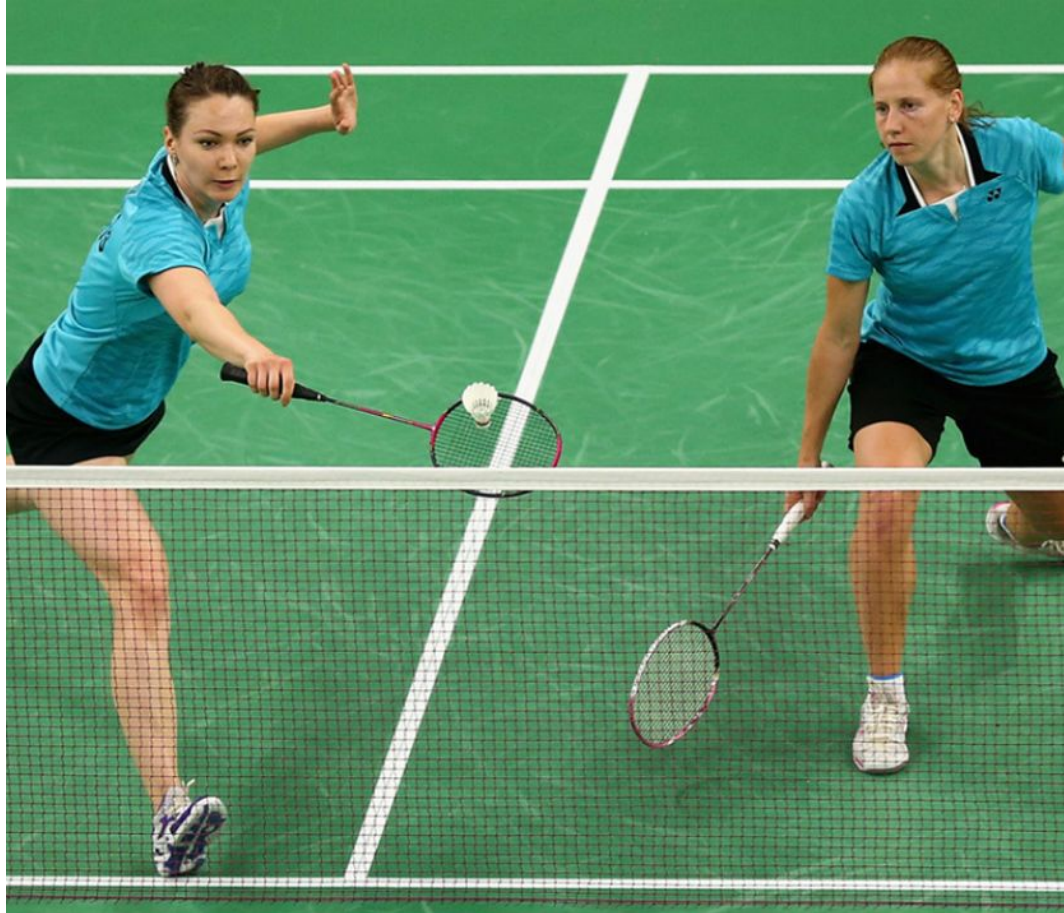

3. Rugby

Rugby is a 15-a-side team sport. The object of the game is to ground the ball behind the opponent's try line, into what is called the in-goal area. Rugby is played both with the ball in hand and by kicking the ball. However, when the ball is being carried in hand it can only be thrown or handed off backwards.

4.Badminton

Badminton is like tennis, but instead of a ball, there is a shuttlecock.

5.Tennis

Tennis is a racket sport that can be played individually against a single opponent (singles) or between two teams of two players each (doubles). Each player uses a tennis racket that is strung with cord to strike a hollow rubber ball covered with felt over or around a net and into the opponent's court.
