

Complete the questions

How much do you earn?

Are you married?

When _____ you start studying English?

_____ do you prefer, small towns or big cities?

_____ would you like to live?

_____ do you go to the theatre a year?

_____ old are you?

_____ tall are you?

_____ you want to have children?

_____ of music do you listen to?

_____ do you relax?

_____ are you like?

_____ do you look like?

A photo – a photograph-to take a photo
a photographer- photography

What do you think is happening?

Read a text SB

What does it mean?

To have press pass

To go inside/outside

To wait the election results

To hold hands

To be tense and nervous

To realize that...

The results are announced

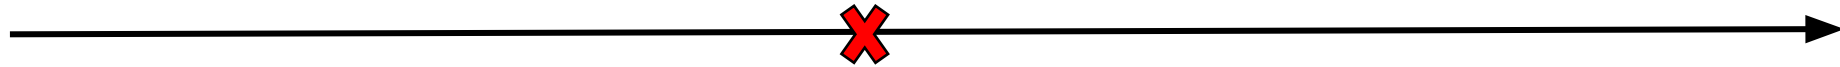

To make a speech

To become emotional

To be excited/delighted/fascinated

Tom took the photo.

Everybody was looking at the TV screens.

1. It was a cold dark night in December.

2. She was wearing a long black coat and carrying a small bag.

3. He got out of the car and looked around, but there was nobody there.

4. The truck driver didn't seem surprised

5. so Justin told the man what had happened.

6. The road was clear and he was driving quickly.

7. He was looking under his car when a truck stopped behind him.

8. «A young woman was killed in a car crash on this road in December 1984,- he said in a mysterious tone.

9. Suddenly, out of nowhere, a young woman stepped out in front of him.

10. The truck driver walked up to him and ask him if he needed any help,

11. when Justin told him about the young woman.

12. Justin was driving home after working late at the office.

13. Justin stepped hard on the brake, but it was too late.

14. While he was looking around the car, he felt a strange presence that sent shivers down his spine.

It was a cold dark night in December.

Justin was driving home after working late at the office.

The road was clear and he was driving quickly.

Suddenly, out of nowhere, a young woman stepped out in front of him. She was wearing a long black coat and carrying a small bag.

Justin stepped hard on the brake, but it was too late.

He got out of the car and looked around, but there was nobody there.

While he was looking around the car, he felt a strange presence that sent shivers down his spine.

He was looking under his car when a truck stopped behind him.

The truck driver walked up to him and ask him if he needed any help,

so Justin told the man what had happened.

The truck driver didn't seem surprised

when Justin told him about the young woman.

«A young woman was killed in a car crash on this road in December 1984,- he said in a mysterious tone.

Time IN – ON - AT Location

HOMEWORK:

English Grammar in Use (Elementary) pdf p. 40 (all exercises)
English Grammar in Use (Elementary) pdf p.221-226 (read and practice)

Make a story in the past (Past Simple + Past Continuous) about a mysterious incident that scared you a lot (or not).

“ It was a cold dark ...(to be continued)”