

Nutrition and health of teenagers

Oleksandr Zaitsev, 8th grade

What would Catherine Zeta Look like if she were big??

veryfunnypics.com

manicfish.com

DANGER

FAST FOOD KILLS

Disease

Adipositas

arthrosis

anemia

atherosclerosis

bulimia

avitaminosis

diabetes cardiovascular anorexia

suffering from locomotion system

What does food consist of?

Proteins are the main building material of the body.

Mineral substances - sodium, phosphorus, iron, potassium, calcium, iodine, etc.

Fats restore the expenditure of thermal energy (heat).

Carbohydrates are used for muscle work

Vitamins are substances necessary for human life, growth and development

Products that contain iodine: SEA FISH; SEAWEED; SHRIMPS; SQUIDS; Mussels; IODIZED SALT IS THE BEST CHOICE.

The principle of rational nutrition

Food pyramid

Salt - 1 teaspoon per day

Water - at least 1.5
liters per day

Dairy products - 2-3
portions per day

Vegetables - 4-5 servings
per day

Fats, oil, sweets - a limited amount
1-2 portions per day

Protein products, legumes -
2-3 portions per day

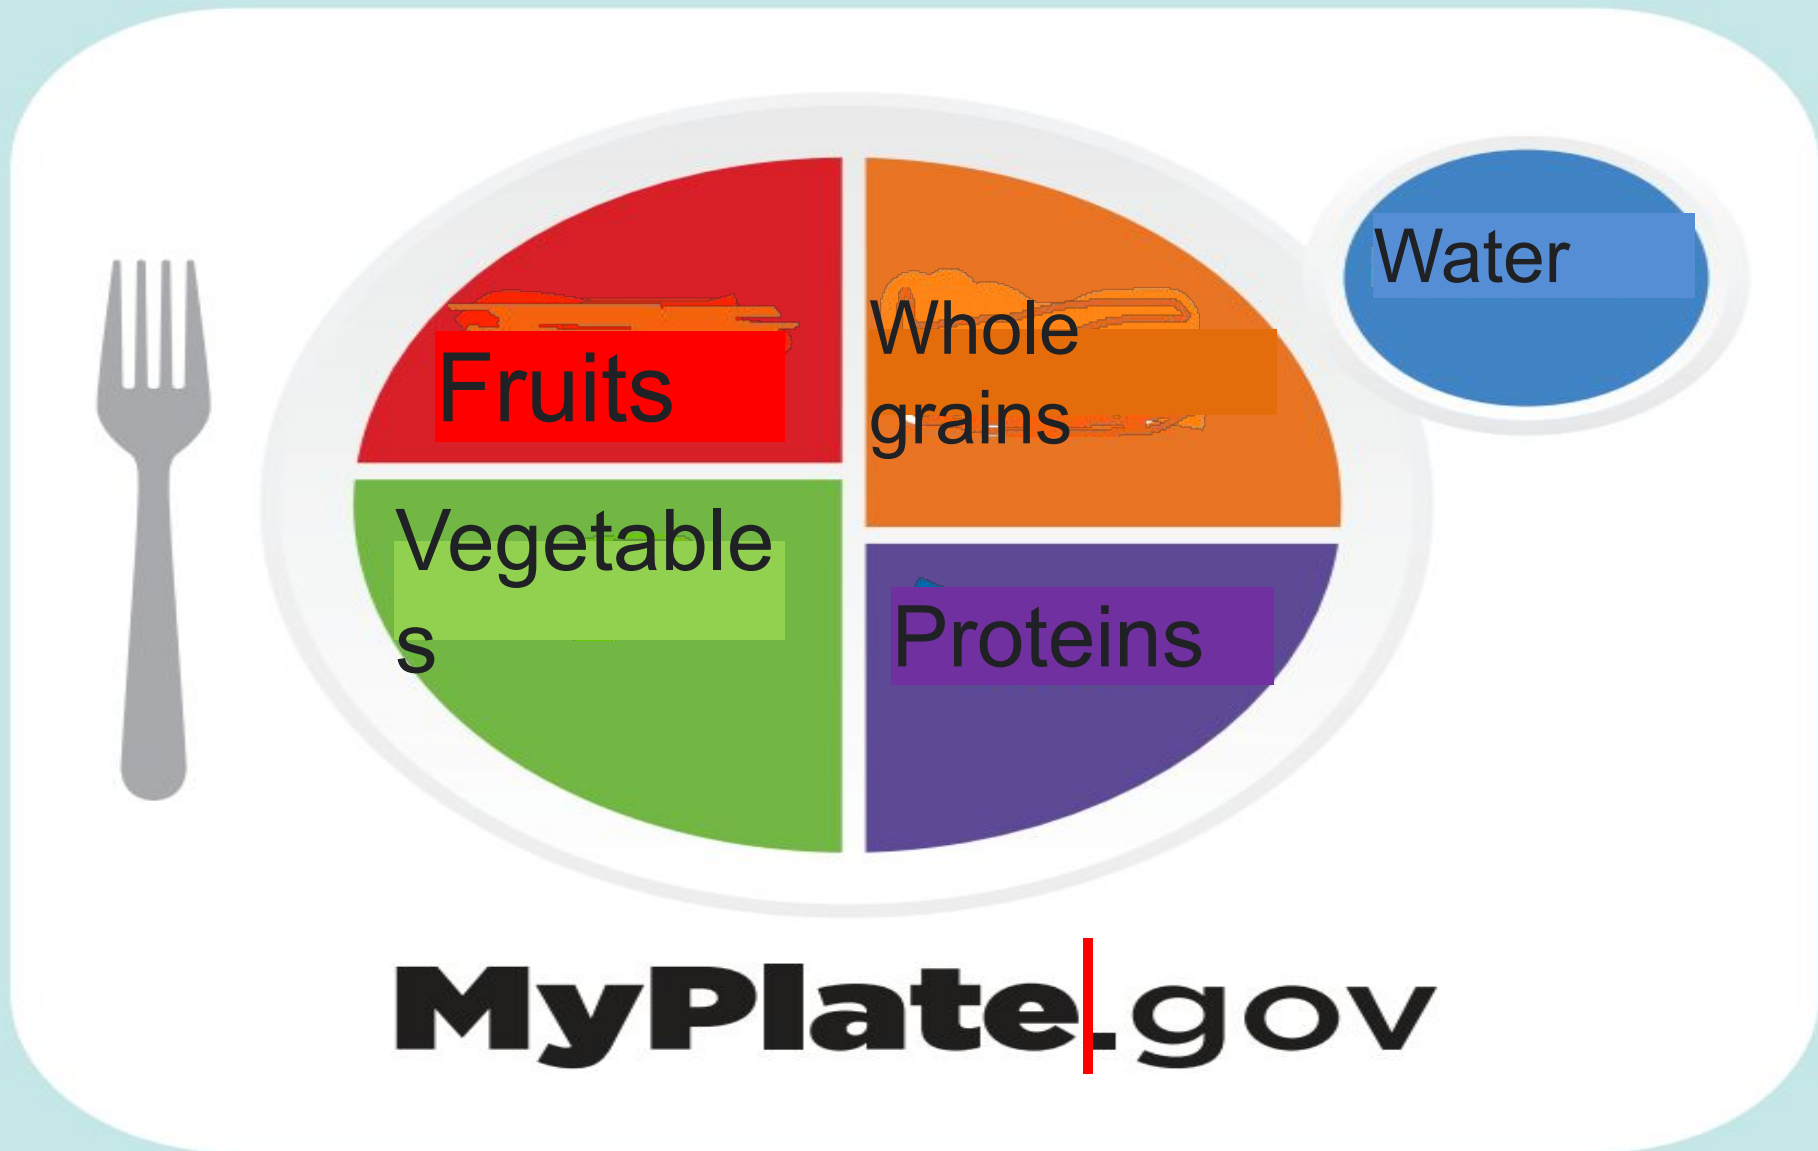

Fruits - 2-4 servings
per day

Cereals - 7-8
servings

A plate of healthy food, which has been actively implemented since 2017 by the first lady of the United States, Michelle Obama.

Vocabulary

Rational nutrition - sufficient in quantity and complete in terms of food quality;

Diet - regularity

Balance is the optimal ratio of food components.

DAILY DIET OF A TEENAGER IN RELATIONSHIPS
PROTEINS, FATS, CARBOHYDRATES
1:1:4
DURING PHYSICAL LOADS

Harmful food

Food additives are substances that are added to products for technological reasons so that they do not spoil, change color and consistency. They are denoted by the letter "E".

The most harmful products

Chewing candies, lozenges, "chupa-chups"

Chips, both corn and potato

Sweet carbonated drinks

Chocolate bars

Sausages and sausages

Mayonnaise and ketchup

Various sauces and dressings Instant noodles

Motto of life:
"Before I sit down at the table
I'll think what's better to eat"

Thank you for attention!

