Dear Lizzie,

3 What about you? How is your family spending New Year's Eve? Whatever you are doing, I wish you and your family a Happy

2 We are very busy here in Madrid preparing the last minute shopping. My mother is making special dishes like fried baby eels. They're delicious, honest! My father is making tea for everyone and Grandma is doing the cleaning. Dad and Steve are doing the shopping. Steve's also washing the car for tonight. In the evening, we will have a party. Good luck to everyone at midnight on New Year's Eve! As for my twins, they are making the decorations for the party. Spanish people call New Year's Eve Nochevieja, which means the old night. This is because the 31st of December is the last night of the old year.

... Eve.

1 How's everything back in NY? It isn't too cold. Here in Madrid, everyone is busy to celebrate New Year's Eve. The shops are full of people. They are buying presents and food. Council workers are decorating the streets and making preparations for tonight's celebrations in the Plaza del Sol.

All the best!

Dear Lizzie,

A What about you? How are you spending New Year's Eve? Whatever you are doing, have a wonderful time. I wish you and your family a Happy New Year.

B We are very busy at the moment. Dad is doing the last minute shopping. Mum is making a special dish, fried baby eels. They're delicious, honest! Aunt Betsie is making tea for everyone and Grandma is doing the gardening. Clara and Steve are doing the washing-up. Steve's also washing the grapes for tonight. In Spain, it's good luck to eat twelve grapes at midnight on New Year's Eve! As for the twins, they are making the decorations. They are excited. Spanish people call New Year's Eve Nochevieja, which means the old night. This is because the 31st of December is the last night of the old year.
