An aerial photograph of a tropical coastline. The foreground shows a vibrant turquoise lagoon with a complex, winding shape, likely a bay or a series of interconnected pools. The water's color transitions from light turquoise near the shore to a deeper blue further out. The shoreline is lined with a dense forest of green trees and a small cluster of buildings, possibly a village. In the background, a range of steep, green mountains rises sharply, their peaks partially obscured by a sky filled with white and grey clouds. The overall scene is lush and scenic, typical of a tropical island.
