Tom and Mary Robinson live in Britain and Dug and Lora Wilson live in the US. Their lives are very much the same. They do the same things every day. Read the text about the Robinsons and say what the Wilsons' day is like. Use American English (see Ex. 5, Step 5).

The Robinsons

The Robinsons are a British family. They live in Manchester. This is their usual weekday. They get up at 6.30. Tom Robinson goes to the bathroom. He turns on the tap, has a shower, cleans his teeth and puts on his favourite clothes — a dark blue jumper and grey trousers. While Tom is dressing his wife Mary gets their breakfast ready. She prepares eggs on the cooker. Tom likes a big breakfast, Mary doesn't eat much in the morning. She usually has a cup of coffee and some biscuits, sometimes she takes a sweet.

When Tom leaves home, he drives his lorry to the petrol station. He has a busy day in front of him. For lunch he usually has chips.

In the morning Mary cleans the flat, takes the rubbish out and puts it in the dustbin standing on the street pavement. Then she goes to the chemist's where she works.

Tom and Mary often drive to the cinema. They leave their old Ford in the car park and enjoy watching their favourite films.
