

BATURYN

Hetman's
Capital of Ukraine

BATURYN

Situated in the north-east of Ukraine,
the former capital of Ukraine.

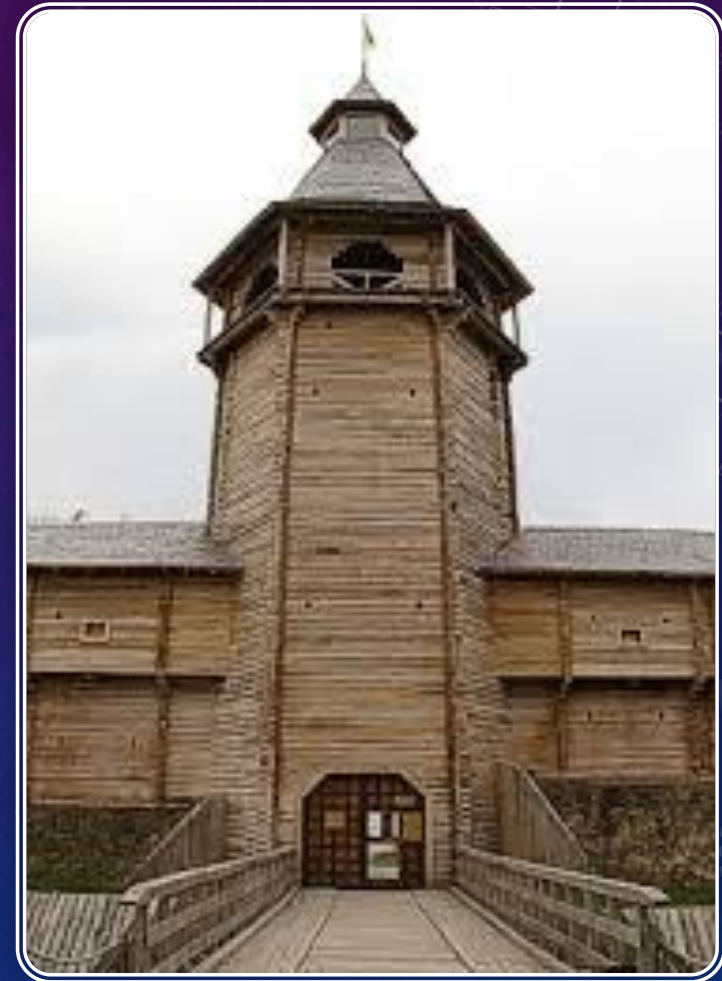

HISTORY

Founded in the early XVII century.

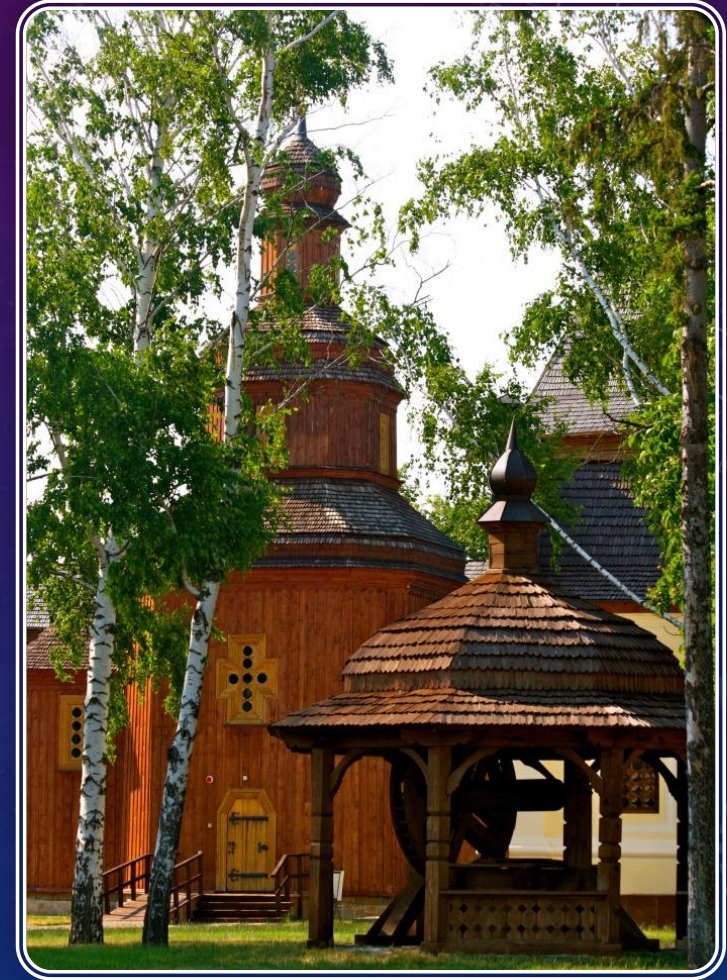

On November 2.1708 Moscow troops led by Alexander Menshikov captured Baturin, completely destroyed the defensive castle and the city itself. The victims were 6-7.5 thousand civilians and 5-6.5 thousand soldiers .

After 1760 Hetman Kyrylo Razumovsky, intended to return hetman capital status to Baturyn but didn't succeed.

ATTRACTIONS

1. House of general judge Basil Kochubei
2. St. Basil's Cathedral, 1789
3. Church of the Resurrection, 1803.
4. Hetman Kirill Razumovsky's House (1803, architect Charles Cameron), restored in 1811-1813.

HOUSE-MUSEUM OF GENERAL JUDGE VASYL KOCHUBEI

ST. BASIL'S CATHEDRAL, 1789

CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION, 1803.

HETMAN KIRILL RAZUMOVSKY (1803, ARCHITECT CHARLES CAMERON), RESTORED IN 1811-1813.

WELCOME TO BATURYN

