

Everyone knows the tale about Kolobok, but suddenly someone did not read it. Did you know that embodies the Bun? What natural phenomenon became the prototype of the Gingerbread man? Of course, the sun, round and rosy, which rolls through the year, first newly baked, then gain experience and, in the end, eaten by a sly Fox on the day of the autumn equinox

In this tale tells about how grandparents by complex experiments baked bun. But Kolobok was not faithful to its creators and served in flight, but he does not know that in the future he will have to face many obstacles and fight for his life!

If you want to know did the gingerbread man or died a heroic death, run to read!

