

Listening

Pronunciation Warm-Up

some any

- ① Listen and repeat. Then read.

Is there any bread?

Are there any carrots?

Yes, there is some bread.

Yes, there are some carrots.

No, there isn't any bread.

No, there aren't any carrots.

Listen and say

Banana Carrot Tomato Sardine Peas

5 [Blank] ...t?

6 [Blank] ... shop!

7 [Blank]

8 [Blank]

Now choose and say.

1 Otto's got some / hasn't got any fruit.

2 Otto's got some / hasn't got any spaghetti.

3 Otto's got some / hasn't got any sardines.

4 Otto's got some / hasn't got any pizza.

5 Otto's got some / hasn't got any carrots.

6 Otto's got some / hasn't got any peas.

Do the exercises on page 31 of your Activity Book.

Otto hasn't got any fruit.

5 I'm very hungry! What have you got?

6 I've got some lovely sardines. I've got some peas and I've got lots of carrots.

7 I hate sardines and peas! I don't like carrots! You haven't got any nice food! This is a horrible shop!

8 Stop, Bertie! Where are you going?

9 I'm going to the tent! I'm going home.

10 Wait! We're coming with you!

5 Now choose and say.

1 Otto's got some / hasn't got any fruit.

2 Otto's got some / hasn't got any spaghetti.

3 Otto's got some / hasn't got any sardines.

4 Otto's got some / hasn't got any pizza.

5 Otto's got some / hasn't got any carrots.

6 Otto's got some / hasn't got any peas.

Do the exercises on page 31 of your Activity Book.

Son:

— Have you got any bread?

Have you got any tea?

Have you got any butter?

Have you got any juice for me?

Mother:

— I've got some bread.

I've got some tea.

I've got some butter.

But I haven't got any juice for you.

Now play the game “In the shop”

