

Social Security Policy in modern Russia

Matveeva Valeria 1308

Contents

1. History of the development of social security
2. Essential features of the social security
3. The social security in Russia
4. My opinion

History of the development of social security

- Formation of social assistance occurred in the context of social, economic and historical development of society.
- In connection with the development of capitalism, more than ever, has become a matter of social injustice.
- The task of social security - human socialization and its formation as a person who lives according to the laws and receives in return comfort.

Essential features of the social security

- State the nature of the society established organizational and legal ways of redistribution through the welfare system.
- Determination of the state social security standards, social risks, as well as social groups that need social protection.
- Upholding the principles of all the above social security.

The social security in Russia

- In Russia throughout its history, the state social welfare of citizens.
- At the moment, there are numerous public and budgetary organizations whose activities are aimed at providing social welfare of different social strata.

My opinion

- I think that our country has enough force is applied to Social Security. This results in inadequate funding of special organizations, imperfect legislation and incorrect assessment of social risks.