store!

Thank you for downloading this product! It's my goal to provide other awesome educators (like YOU!) with new tools, strategies, and ideas that can be used to facilitate a higher level of learning in the classroom!

The inspiration for this product/resource comes from my undying effort to get my students even more engaged in the content being taught in the classroom - not to mention - outside of the classroom! I hope you found everything you need to successfully implement this unique TASK CARD activity in your classroom!

Living, Laughing and Always Learning,

Ms. G
