I've Never Met a

MONSTER

I Didn't Like

I've never met a monster I didn't like.

First there was Fred, who had horns
on his head.

He was fluffy and blue, and was quite friendly too.

Grumpy old Judd was made out of mud.

But as a surprise he would make me mud pies.

I used to go out
to dinner with Lisa.
She ate a lot –
but she only ate pizza.

Then I made friends with a monster called Dave.
We'd sit for hours and chat in his cave.

Paul was a monster who was always confused.
But he told monster stories and kept me amused.

The monsters I've met
have mostly been silly.
The silliest of all
was probably Willie.

The ones that weren't silly
were all a bit moody.

Even though she was moody, I really liked Trudy.

But monsters, to most people,
are scary I'm sure.
And for fear of monsters, there is no cure.

So they hide in storybooks, a fairly safe place,
until the day they can each show their face.

Which monster would you like to meet?

Rhyming Words

Rhyming words have the same ending sounds. Place and face are rhyming words.

What other rhyming words can you find in this book?

Extension: Draw and Write

Draw a picture of a monster. Think about the things your monster might like—or not like. Maybe your monster is good at a sport, or is afraid of something.

Write two sentences about your monster. Use rhyming words at the end of the sentences.
